O F

P S A L M S,

Collected into

English Metre,

By THOMAS STERNHOLD, JOHN HOPKINS, and others,
Conferred with the Hebrew:

Set down and allowed to be sung in all Churches, of all the people together, before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and also before and after Sermons; and moreover in private Houses, for their godly solace and comfort, laying apart all ungodly songs and ballads, which tend only to the nourishing of vice, and corrupting of Youth.

James 5. 13.

If any be afflicted, let him pray: and if any be merry, let him sing Psalms.

Colossians 3. 16.

Let the Word of God dwell plenteously in you, in all wisdom teaching and exhorting one another in Psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing unto the Lord in your hearts.

Veni Creator.

Veni Creator.

Come Holy Ghost, eternal God, proceeding from above,
Both from the Father & the Son,
the God of peace and love.
Visit our minds, and into us
thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godliness,
we may have true desire.
Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and distress:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can express.
The fountain and the living spring
of joy celestial,
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unction spiritual.
Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christs Church doth stand In faithful hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place.
O holy Ghost, into our wits
send down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strengthen & stablish all our weakness,
so feeble and so frail:
That neither flesh, the world, nor devil
against us do prevail.
Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
without grudge or disdain.
And grant, O Lord, that thou being
our leader and our guide,
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.
To us such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord grant, we thee pray,
That thou may'st be our comforter
at the last dreadful day.
Of all strife and dissension.
O Lord, dissolve the bands,
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands.
Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know
the Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the sight:
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee,
The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in Persons three.
Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal,
And to the holy Spirit also,
one God coeternal.
And pray we that the only Son
vouchsafe his Spirit to send
To all that doe profess his name,
unto the worlds last end.
The humble suit of a sinner.
O Lord of whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou see'st my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me;

Venite exultemus.

But only thou whose aid I crave,
whose mercy still is prest,
To ease all those that come to thee
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou see'st my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groan;
Attend unto my suit, O Lord,
mark well my plaint and moan.
For sin hath so enclosed me,
and compass me about,
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain:
But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.
Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortal eye:
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.
And as thine Angels and thy saints
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possess that place,
with them to praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale
where sinners do frequent,
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.
Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickedness,
whereto nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.
Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy Church and house of Saints
sing Psalms to thee always.
Venite exultemus. Psal. xc.
Sing this as Benedictus.
O Come and let us now joyce,
And sing unto the Lord,
And to our only Saviour
Also with one accord.
O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sins,
And that with diligence.
To thank him for his benefits,
Always distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalms now let us sing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent
And eke above all other gods
A king omnipotent.
His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where,
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains far and near.
The sea and all that therein

Te Deum.

Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.
He is our God, our Lord, and King,
And we his people are,
His flock and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then harden not your heart,
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.
Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime.
Whereas your fathers tempted me
And try'd me every way:
They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.
These forty years I have been griev'd
With this generation:
And evermore I said, they err'd
In their imagination:
Wherewith their hearts were fore cum-
Long time and many days: (brod
Wherefore I said, assuredly,
They have not known my ways.
To whom I in my anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestial,
Nor enter in my rest.
Gloria Patri.
All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most,
To God the Father, and the Son,
And to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was
For ever heretofore,
And is now at this present time,
And shall be evermore.
The song of S. Ambrose, called
Te Deum.
VE praise thee, God, we know-
the only Lord to be; (ledge thee
And as eternal Father, all
the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all angels cry, the heavens
and all the powers therein:
To thee Cherub and Seraphin
to cry they do not lin,
O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabaoth Lord the God; Through heaven and earth thy praise is and glory all abroad. (spread Th' apostles glorious company
yield praises unto thee:
The prophets goodly fellowship
praise ye continually,
The noble and victorious host
of martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy Church throughout the world
doth knowledge thee always.
Father of endless Majesty
they do acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ thine honorable, true,
and only Son to be.
The holy Ghost the Comforter,
of glory thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Son everlasting.
When sinful mans decay in hand

The Song of the three children.

thou tookest to restore:
To be inclos'd in Virgins womb
thou didst not abhor.
When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruel might:
Thou heavens kingdom didst set open
to each believing wight
In glory of the Father thou dost sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
our cause to understand.
Lord help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood,
And in eternal glory set them with thy Saints to good.
O Lord, do thou thy people save,
blest thine inheritance:
Lord govern them; and Lord, do thou
for ever them advance.
We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy Name: O Lord, vouchsafe us to defend
From this day: have mercy, Lord,
have mercy on us all:
And on us, as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
O Lord, I have reposed all
my confidence in thee:
Put to confounding shame therefore Lord, let me never be.

The Song of the three Children.

O blest ye the Lord, Praise him and magnifie him for ever.
2 O ye the angels of the Lord,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
3 O ye the starry heavens high,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
4 O ye waters above the sky,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
5 O all ye powers of the Lord,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
6 O ye the shining Sun and Moon,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
7 O ye the glittering stars of heaven,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
8 O ye the Shower and dropping Dew,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
9 O ye the blowing Winds of God,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
10 O ye the fire and warming Heat,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
11 Ye Winter and the Summer tide,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
12 O ye the Dews and binding Frosts,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
13 O ye the Frost and chilling Cold,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
14 O ye congealed Ice and Snow,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
15 O ye the Nights and lightsom Days,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
16 O ye the Darkness and the Light,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
17 O ye the Lightning and the Clouds,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
18 O let the Earth eke blest the Lord,
yea blest the Lord, &c.
19 O ye the Mountains and the Hills,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
20 O all ye green things on the earth,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
21 O ye the ever springing Wells,

Benedictus.

blest ye the Lord, &c.
22 O ye the Seas, and eke the Floods,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
23 O whales, and all that in waters move,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
24 O all ye flying Fowls of th' air,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
25 O all ye Beasts and Cartel eke,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
26 O ye the Children of mankind,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
27 Let Israel eke blest the Lord,
yea blest the Lord, &c.
28 O ye the Priests of God the Lord,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
29 O ye the Servants of the Lord,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
30 Ye Spirits and Souls of righteous men
blest ye the Lord, &c.
31 Ye holy and ye meek of heart,
blest ye the Lord, &c.
32 O Ananias, blest the Lord,
blest thou the Lord, &c.
33 O Azarias, blest the Lord,
blest thou the Lord, &c.
34 And Micael, eke blest the Lord,
blest thou the Lord, &c.

The Song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THE only Lord of Israel
be praised evermore:
For through his visitation
And mercy kept in store,
His people now he hath redeem'd
That long have been in thrall:
And spread abroad his saving health
Upon his servants all.
In Davids house his servant true
According to his mind,
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture find.
As by his holy Prophets all
Of times he did declare,
The which were since the world began,
His ways for to prepare.
That we might be delivered
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.
The mercy which he promised
Our fathers to fulfill,
And think upon his Covenant made
According to his will.
And also to perform the Oath
Which he before had sworn
To Abraham our father dear,
For us that were forlorn.
That he would give himself for us,
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King,
And that without all manner fear,
And eke in righteousness.
And also for to lead our lives
In steadfast holiness.
And thou, O Child, which now art born,
And of the Lord elect,
Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest,
His ways for to direct.
For thou shalt go before his face
For to prepare his ways,
And also for to reach his will,
And pleasure all thy day,
To give them knowledge how that their

Salvation is near.

Salvation is near:
And that remission of their sins
Is through his mercy mere.
Whereby the day spring from on high
Is come asfor to visit,
And those for to illuminate
Which do in darkness sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death, and eke oppress:
And also for to guide our feet
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of the blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord,
My spirit eke evermore
Rejoiceth in the Lord my God,
Which is my Saviour.
And why? because he did regard,
And gave respect unto
So base estate of his handmaid,
And let the mighty go,
For now behold all nations
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right blessed call:
Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might;
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.
For which his mercy and his grace
All men he doth inflame,
Throughout all generations
To such as fear his name.
He shewed strength with his great arm,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they bear in their heart.
He hath put down the mighty ones
From their supernal seat,
And did exalt the meek in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.
The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich
Of times to want their food.
And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deal,
Hath holpen up assiduously
His servant Israel.
According to his promise made
To Abraham before,
And to his seed successively,
To stand for evermore.
The Song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.
O Lord, because my hearts desire Hath wished long to see My only Lord and Saviour,
Thy son before I die:
The joy and healt of all mankind,
Desired long before,
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercy bringing store.
Thou sufferest thy servant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy Word,
Which lighteneth my heart.
Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might.
Whom thou mercifully hast fed,
(Of thine abundant grace)
In open sight and visible

Before all peoples face,
The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan over-quel,
And to be the glory of Thy people Israel.
The Symbols or Creed of Athanasius called

Quicunque vult.

Vhat man soever he be
that salvation will attain,
The Catholick belief he must before all things retain.
Which faith unless he wholly keep,
and undefiledly,
Without all doubt eternally
he shall be sure to die.
The Catholick belief is this,
that God we worship one In Trinity, and Trinity
in Unity alone:
So as we neither do confound
the Persons of the three,
Nor yet the substance whole of one
in sunder parted be.
One Person of the Father is,
another of the Son,
Another Person proper of the holy Ghost alone.
Of Father, Son, and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is:
Like glory, coeternal eke
the Majesty likewise.
Such as the Father is, such is the Son in each degree:
And such also we do believe the holy Ghost to be.
Uncreate is the Father, and
uncreate is the Son,
The holy Ghost uncreate, so uncreate is each one.
Incomprehensible Father is,
incomprehensible Son,
And incomprehensible also is the holy Ghost of none.
The Father is eternal, and the Son eternal so,
And in like sort eternal is
the holy Ghost also.
And yet though we believe that each of these eternal be:
Yet there but one eternal is,
and not eternals three,
As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet uncreate three,
But one incomprehensible, one
uncreate hold to be.
Almighty to the Father is,
the son Almighty so,
And in like sort Almighty is
the holy Ghost also.
And albeit that every one of these Almighty be;
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.
The Father God is, God the Son,
God holy Ghost also.
Yet are there not three Gods in all,
but one God, and no mo.
So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Son,
And Lord the holy Ghost: yet are
there not three Lords, but one.
For as we are compell'd to grant
by Christian verity,
Each of the persons by himself

both God and Lord to be:
So Catholick religion
forbiddeth us alway,
That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three, to say.
Of none the Father is, ne made,
ne create, nor begot:
The Son is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got:
The holy Ghost is of them both,
the Father and the Son;
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.
So we one Father hold, not three,
one Son also, not three:
One holy Ghost alone, and not
three holy Ghosts to be.
None in this Trinity before nor after other is:
Ne greater any then the rest:
ne lesser be likewise.
But every one among themselves
of all the persons three,
Together coeternal all,
and all coequal be.
So Unity in Trinity,
as said it is before,
And Trinity in Unity
in all things we adore.
Therefore what man soever that salvation will attain.
This faith touching the Trinity of force he must retain.
And needful to eternal life
it is, that every wight
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord believe aright.
For this the right faith is, that we believe and eke do know,
That Christ our Lord the Son of God
is God and man also:
God of his Fathers substance got
before the world began,
And of his Mothers substance born
in world a very man.
Both perfect God and perfect man
in one, one Jesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soul
and humane flesh subsist.
Touching his Godhead, equal with his Father God is he:
Touching his manhood, lower then
his Father in degree.
Who though he be both very God
and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One, not by turning of Godhead
into the flesh of man;
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.
All one, not by confounding of
the substance into one;
But only by the Unity
that is of one Person.
For as the reasonable soul
and flesh but one man is:
So in one Person God and Man
is but one Christ likewise.
Who suffered for to save us all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose again from death,
to heaven he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God

th' Almighty Father there:
From thence to judge the quick & dead
again he shall appear.
At whose return all men shall rise
with bodies new restor'd,
And of their own works they shall give account unto the Lord.
And they into eternal life
shall go that have done well:
Who have done ill shall go into eternal fire to dwell.
This is the Catholick belief:
who doth not faithfully Believe the same without all doubt
he saved cannot be.
To Father, Son, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

The Lamentation of a Sinner.

O Lord, turn not away thy face.
From him that lies prostrate,
Lamenting sore his sinful life
Before thy mercy gate:
Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sin.
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.
And call me not to mine account
How I have lived here:
For then I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.
I need not to confess my life,
I am sure thou canst tell:
What I have been, and what I am,
I know thou know'st it well.
O Lord, thou know'st what things be
And eke the things that be: (past,
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.
Before the heavens & earth were made,
Thou know'st what things were then:
As all things else that have been since
Among the sons of men.
And can the things that I have done
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay, nay, thou know'st them all, O Lord,
Where they were done, and when.
Wherefore with tears I come to thee
To beg and to intreat:
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.
So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound,
Requiring mercy for my sin,
To heal my deadly wound.
O Lord, I need not to repeat
What I do beg or crave:
Thou know'st, O Lord, before I ask,
The thing that I would have.
Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the total sum,
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit;
Lord, let thy mercy come.
The Lords Prayer, or Pater noster.
O Ur Father which in heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the same In Heaven is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation lead us not,

The ten Commandments.

from evil make us free:
For kingdom, power, and glory thine
both now and ever be.

The X commandments.

Audi, Israel. Exod. 20.

Heark Israel, and what I say
give heed to understand;
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst
in thralldom live a slave.
None other gods at all before,
my presence shalt thou have.
No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee;
Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in Heaven above,
nor in the earth below,
Nor in the waters beneath the earth:
to them thou shalt not bow,
Nor shalt them serve: the Lord thy God,
a jealous God am I,
That punish parents faults unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.
The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use:
For him that takes his name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred Sabbath day:
Six days thou labour shalt, and do
thy needful works alway.
The seventh day is set by the Lord
thy God to rest upon;
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine ass,
Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding-place:

The complaint of a Sinner.

For in six days God heaven and earth,
and all therein did make,
And after those his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordain,
And sacred to himself alone
appointed to remain.
Yield honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy days may be Upon the land the which the Lord
thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit a dultery.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness false against thy neighbour be.
Thou shalt not covet house that to
they neighbour doth belong:
Ne covet shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong:
Nor his man-servant, nor his maid,
nor ox, nor ass of his,
Nor any other thing that to they neighbour proper is.

The Complaint of a Sinner.

VHere righteousness doth say,
Lord, for my sinful part,
In wrath thou should'st me pay Vengeance for my desert:
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confess,
How that continually
Thy laws I do transgress,
Thy laws I do transgress.
But it is bethy will
With sinners to contend,
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight
Full oft and every day? Full oft, &c.
The Scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day to thee,

Whereon thy wrath dependeth:
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and then
In danger of thy wrath.
Then sith the case so stands,
That even the man right wise
Falls oft in sinful hands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise;
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have,
Whereto then shall I trust
My sinful soul to save? My sinful, &c.
But truly to that post
Whereto I cleave and shall,
Which is thy mercy most?
Lord, let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call, wherein &c.
The Scripture doth declare
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me,
Now let those drops me sweet
So moist my heart so dry,
That I with sin repeat,
May live, and sin may die, May live, &c.
That being mortified
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into such mortal sin,
That my foes infernal
Rejoyce my death therein, Rejoyce, &c.
But vouchsafe me to keep
From those infernal foes,
And from that lake so deep,
Whereas no mercies grows.
And I shall sing the songs
Confirmed with the just,
That unto thee belongs,
Which art mine only trust, Which, &c.

The PSALMS of DAVID in METRE.

Beatus vir. Psal. j. T. S.

THe man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear:
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sat in scorners chair.

2 But in the Law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows
fast by the rivers side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide:
Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgment stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just
shall come in place or fight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And eke the way of wicked men
shall quite be overthrown.

Quare fremuerunt? Psal. ij. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vain?

2 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent,
Against the Lord and Christ his son,
which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking-stocks,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them upon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,

6 I have anointed him my king
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore (Lord) preach thy law
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wot,
Thou art my dear and only Son,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possesst.

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a
as men under foot trod: (mace)
And as the potters shreds, shalt break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye, O kings, and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd,
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye rejoyce
to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kiss and eke embrace
his blessed son, I say:
Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid-way.

13 If once his wrath never so small
shall kindle in his breast:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid. Psal. iij. T. S.

O Lord, how are my foes increas't,
which vex me more and more?
2 They kill my heart when as they say
God can him not restore.

3 But thou O Lord art my defence,
when I am hard bestead:
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he our of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.

5 I laid me down, and quietly
I slept and rose again:
For why? I know assuredly
the Lord will me sustain.

6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call:
7 For thou hast broke the cheeks and
of those wicked men all. (teeth)

Salvation only doth belong to thee, O Lord above: Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

Cum invocarem. Psal. iv. T. S.

O God that art my righteousness,
Lord, hear me when I call:
Thou hast set me at liberty
when I was bound and thrall.

2 Have mercy (Lord) therefore on me
and grant me my request:
For unto thee unceasingly
to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortal men, how long will ye
my glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lyes?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse:
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly
see you your selves convert.

6 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness I say:
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust away.

7 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:
But, Lord, grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.

8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyful and more glad,
Then they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:
For thou only wilt me, O Lord,
alone in safety keep.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

Incline thine ear unto my words,
O Lord, my plaint consider:
2 And hear my voice, my king, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Hear me betime, Lord, tarry not,
for I will have respect
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none.

5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furious fools, O Lord:
Vain workers of iniquity
thou hast always abhorr'd.

6 The liars and the flatterers
thou shalt destroy them than:
And God will hate the blood-thirsty,
and the deceitful man.

7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trusting upon thy grace:
And reverently will worship thee,
toward thine holy place.

8 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I shall walk
before my face disclose.

9 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and fain.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
Subvert them in their heaps of sin
which have rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad always:
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still:
And with thy grace as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vj. T. S.

Lord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire:
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.

2 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord,
of mercy me forbear:
And heal me, Lord, for why? thou know'st
my bones do quake for fear.

3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:
But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay
to cure my misery!

4 Lord, turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soul up take:
O save me, not for my deserts
but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead
remembreth thee one whit:
Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernal pit?

6 So grievous is my plaint and mone,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.

7 My fight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart,
For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.

8 But now away from me all ye
that work iniquity:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard not only the request
and prayer of my heart;
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will soon defame:

And suddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vij. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue
and eke deliver me.

2 Left like a lion he me tear,
and read in pieces small,

While there is none to succour me,
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right,
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy fight:

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causeless:

5 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Start up, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and king.

8 And as thou art of all men judge,
O Lord, now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The second part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:

By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descri'd.

10 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart,
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

11 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:

So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.

12 Except he change his mind, I die;
for even as he should smite,

He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit:

13 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,

For them that dome persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.

14 But lo, though he in travail be
of his devilish forecast:

And of his mischief once conceiv'd;
yet brings forth nought at last.

15 He digs a ditch, and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:

But he shall fall into the pit
that he digg'd up for other.

16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought
shall fall upon his head.

17 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteously;

And with my song will praise the name
of him that is most high.

Domine Deus noster. Psal. viij. T. S.

O God our Lord, how wonderful
are thy works every where,
Whose fame surmounts in dignity
above the heavens clear!

2 Even by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand:
The Sun, the Moon, and all the Stars,
in order as they stand:

4 What thing is man, Lord, think I then,
that thou dost him remember?

Or what is mans posterity,
that thou dost it consider?

5 For thou hast made him little less than angels in degree:

And thou hast crowned him also
with glory and dignity.

6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder:

And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.

7 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else,
that in the fields do feed:

8 Fowls of the air, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord:

How famous and how wonderful
are thy works through the world!

Confitebor tibi, Domine. Psal. ix. T. S.

With heart and mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise:

And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them, declare always.

2 I will be glad and much rejoice
in thee, O God most high:

And make my songs extol thy Name
above the starry skie.

3 For that my foes are driven back
and turned unto flight:

They fall down flat and are destroy'd
by thy great power and might.

4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong
my grief and all my grudge:

Thou dost with justice hear my cause
most like a righteous judge.

5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked so confound:

That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.

6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns destroy'd:

Thou hast their fame with them defaced
through all the world so wide.

7 Know thou, that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,

And in the seat of equity
true judgment will maintain.

8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:

And so will yield with equity
to every man his right.

9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be oppress'd,

He is in all adversity
their refuge and their rest.

10 And they that know thy holy name
therefore shall trust in thee:

For thou forsakest not their suit
in their necessity.

The second part.

11 Sing Psalms therefore unto the Lord
that dwells in Zion hill:

Publish among all nations
his noble acts and will.

12 For he is mindful of the blood
of those that be oppress'd:

Forgetting not th' afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.

13 Have mercy, Lord, on me poor wretch
whose enemies still remain:

Which from the gates of death are wont
to raise me up again.

14 In Zion that might set forth
thy praise with heart and voice:

And that in thy salvation, Lord,
my soul might still rejoice.

15 The heathen stick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd:

And in the net that they did set
their own feet fast are snar'd,

16 God shews his judgments, which were for every man to mark: (good)

When as ye see the wicked man lie trap in his own wark.

17 The wicked and deceitful men
go down to hell for ever:

And all the people of the world
that will not God remember.

18 But sure the Lord will not forget
the poor mans grief and pain:

The patient people never look for help of God in vain.

19 O Lord, arise, lest men prevail,
that be of worldly might;

And let the heathen folk receive their judgment in thy sight.

20 Lord, strike such terror, fear, and dread
into the hearts of them,

That they may know assuredly
they be but mortal men.

Ut quid Domine. Psal. x. T. S.

What is the cause that thou, O Lord,
art now so far from thine;

And keepest close thy countenance
from us this troublous time?

2 The poor do perish by the proud and wicked mens desire.

Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves, conspire
3 For in the lust of his own heart
ch' ungodly doth delight
So doth the wicked praise himself
and doth the Lord despise
4 He is proud, that right and wrong he setteth all apart Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he
for thus he thinks in heart 5 Because his ways do prosper still he doth thy laws neglect
And with a blasphemous puff against such as would him correct
6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread
lest mine estate should change
And why? for all adversity
to him is very strange 7 His mouth is full of cursefulness,
of fraud, deceit, and guile
Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and triuail all the while 8 He lieth hid in ways and holes to slay the innocent Against the poor that pass him by his cruel eyes are bent 9 And like a lion privily
lies lurking in his den,
If he may inare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men
10 And for the nonce full craftily
he crouched down, May 11 So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong power, his prey
The second part.
12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold 13 Arise, O Lord, O God, in whom the poor mans hope doth rest
Lift up thy hand, forger not, Lord,
the poor that be oppress'd 14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, dost thou not abhor it,
To hear the wicked in their heart
say, Tush, thou canst not for it 15 But thou seest all their wickedness,
and well dost understand 16 That friendless and poor fatherless are left into thy hand 17 Of wicked and malicious men
then break the power, for ever
That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether 18 The Lord shall reign for evermore
as King and God alone
And he will chase the heathen folk
out of the land each one 19 Thou hear'st, O Lord, the desires their prayers and questions
Their hearts thou wilt confirm, until
I thine ears to hear be prest 20 To judge the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right
That they may be no more oppress'd
by men of worldly might
In Domino confido. Psal. 145.
Trust in God, how dare ye then
say thus my soul unfeared
Fly hence, as fast as any foot,
and hide you in your fear

Plal. 140.
Behold the wicked, and his power
and make their arrows bright
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the fond and harmless breast
3 Of worldly hope all ways were drunk
and clearly brought to naught
Alas, the just and righteous man
What evil hath he wrought
4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royal majesty
The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his mind
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind
5 And with a cheerful countenance
the righteous man will use
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse
6 And on the sinners casteth snares
as thick as any rain
Fire and brimstone, and whirlwinds
appointed for their pain
7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace
And to the just and upright man
shews forth his pleasant face
Saluum me fac. Psal. 124.
Help, Lord, for good and godly men
do peril and decay
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away
2 Whofo doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and feign
3 But flattering and deceitful lips
and tongues that be so stout
To speak proud words and make great
the Lord soon cuts them out 4 For they say still, We will prevail
our tongues shall us extol
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak;
what Lord shall us controul
5 But for the great complaint and cry
of poor and men oppress'd Arise will I now, saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest
6 Gods word is like to silver pure that from the earth is wr'd
And hath no less then seven times
in fire been purifi'd
7 Now sith thy promise is to help
Lord, keep thy promise then
And save us now and evermore
from this ill kind of men
8 For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold When evan with worldly men
so highly is extoll'd Uspeximus Domine. Psal. 138.
How long wilt thou forget me, Lord,
shall I now be remembered
How long wilt thou thy village hide,
as though thou wert offended
2 In heart and mind how long shall I with care be troubled
How long ere shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me
3 Behold me now, my Lord my God,
and hear me sore oppress'd

Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death posses'd
4 Lest that mine enemy say to me
behold, I do prevail
Lest they also that hate my soul
rejoice to see me quail
5 But from thy mercy and goodness
my hope shall never fail
In thy relief and saving health
right glad shall be my soul
6 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord,
and praise to him sing
Because he hath heard my requests and granted my wishing Dixit insipiens. Psal. 140.
Here is no God, as foolish men affirm in their mad mood
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good 2 The Lord beheld from heaven
the whole face of mankind
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to find 3 They went all wide and were corrupt and truly there was none
That in the world did any good
I say, there was not one 4 Is all their judgment so far lost that all work mischief fills Eating my people even as bread,
not one to feed Gods will 5 When they thus see, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all 6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame
Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name
7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfil Thy promise made to Israel
from out of Sion hill 8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad Domine quis. Psal. 138.
Lord, within thy habitation
who shall inhabit still Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill
2 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit
3 Nor to his neighbour doth he ill
in body, goods, or name
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might empar the same 4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men
But those that love and fear the Lord
he maketh much of them
5 His oath and all his promises that keepeth faithfully
Although he make his covenant so that he doth lose thereby 6 That putteth not to usury
his money and his coin Ne for to hurt the innocent
doth bribe or else purloyn

Trust in God, how dare ye then
say thus my soul unfeared
Fly hence, as fast as any foot,
and hide you in your fear

Behold me now, my Lord my God,
and hear me sore oppress'd

What doeth all things as you see that here is to be done
shall never perishing out of the world
nor in the world to come.

Confession of Faith.
Lord, keep me for I trust in thee,
and do not forsake me.
Thou art my God; and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no need.
I give my goods unto the poor,
that in the world do dwell,
And namely to the faithful flock
in virtue that excel.

3 They shall heap sorrows on their heads,
which run as they were mad,
To offer to the idol-gods:
alas, it is too bad.

4 As for their bloody sacrifice
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch; nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is
of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excel:
Mine heritage a sign a to me
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his means my secret thoughts
do reach me every night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together:
My heart and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.

10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for, Lord, thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy One corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life,
for all treasure, and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face
and power for evermore.

Exaudi, Domine. Psal. 17. T. S.
O Lord, give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain:
And hear the prayer that I put forth
with lips that do not feign.

2 And let the judgment of my cause
proceed always from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.

3 Thou hast well tried me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing find
That I have spoken with my tongue
that was not in my mind.

4 As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name
I have refrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me, Lord, and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk
my steps may never swerve.

6 For I do call to thee, O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid:

Psalm 17. T. S.
Then hear my prayer, and weigh right
the words that I have said.

7 O thou that Saviour art of all them
that put their trust in thee,
Declare thy strength on them that spurn
against thy Majesty.

8 O keep me as thou wouldst keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second part.
9 From wicked men that trouble me
and daily me annoy,
And from my foes that go about
my soul for to destroy:

10 Which wallow in their worldly
so fulk and eke so fat,
That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound:
And musing mischief in their minds,
to cast me to the ground.

12 Much like a lion greedily,
that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a lion's whelp
within some secret place.

13 Up Lord in haste, prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with thy sword him smite.

14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy power
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

15 I mean from worldly men to whom
all worldly goods are rife,
That have no hope nor part of joy
but in this present life.

16 Thou of thy store their bellies fillst
with pleasure to their mind:
Their children have enough, and leave
to theirs the rest behind.

17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te, Domine. Psal. 18. T. S.
O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee:
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.

2 My God, my rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.

3 When I sing loud unto the Lord
most worthy to be served,
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserved.

4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.

5 The lie and subtil snares of hell,
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepared
a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake, Yea, the foundation of the world
of Balan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coals
of hot consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bowed the heavens high:
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the sky.

10 On cherubs and on cherubims
full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.

The second part.
11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:
With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear:
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coals of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts
disperse them here and there:
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatnings,
and at thy chiding cheer,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below,
And plucked me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.

16 And me delivered from my foes,
that would have made me thrall:
Yea, from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withal.

17 They did prevent me to oppress
in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free,
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,
And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his paths have trod,
And have not wavered wickedly
against my Lord and God.

The third part.
21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandments
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt
appeared before his face,
And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward
as I have done aright:
And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy too.

And with the good and veracious men
right veriously will do.

25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reserve.

And thou wilt use the wicked men
as wicked men deserve.

26 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie.

And dost bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:

The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.

28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit, Lord, I shall:

By thee I scale and overleap
the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the ways of God
his word is purely tri'd.

He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none:

Or else who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone?

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength
is he that I do mean,

That all the ways wherein I walk
did ever more keep clean:

32 That made my feet like to the harts
in swiftness of my pace,

And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands
to battel and to fight:

To break in sunder bars of brass
he gave mine arms the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower:

Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.

35 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk,

So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoy'd:

And from the field do not return
till they be all destroy'd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more:

For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all for fore.

38 For thou dost gird me with thy strength
to war in such a wise:

That they be all scatter'd abroad
that up against me rise.

39 Lord thou hast put into my hands
my mortal enemies yoke:

And all my foes thou dost divide
in sunder with thy stroke.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave
nor help them with relief:

Yea, to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the wind
I drive them under feet:

And sweep them out like filth by clay
that sticketh in the streets.

42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk,
that still in strife are led:

And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve:

And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine own will swerve.

44 I shall be it krom to mine own,
they will not see my light:

But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise:

That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he always.

46 For God it is that gave me power,
revenged for to be,

And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me higher then those

That cruel and ungodly were
and up against me rose.

48 And for this cause, O Lord my God
to thee give thanks I shall,

And sing out praises to thy Name
among the Gentiles all.

49 That gavest great prosperity
unto the king, I say,

To David thine anointed king,
and to his seed for ay.

celi enarrant. Psal. 19. T. S.

THe heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare

The glory of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.

2 The wondrous works of God appear
by every days success:

The nights likewise which their race run
the self same thing express.

3 There is no language, tongue or speech
where their sound is not heard,

In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conferr'd.

4 In them the Lord made for the sun
a place of great renown,

Who like a bridegroom ready trimm'd
doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,

With joy doth hast to take in hand
some noble enterprise.

6 And all the sky from end to end
he compasseth about:

Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure,

Converting souls and making wise
the simple and obscure.

8 Just are the Lords commandments,
and glad both heart and mind

His precept's pure and giveth light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever.

The judgements of the Lord are true
and righteous altogether.

10 And more to be embrac'd away
then fined gold, I say:

The honey and the honey-comb,
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd
to have God in regard,

And in performance of the same
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord, what earthly man doth
the errors of his life?

Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me:

And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:

For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord, thou art alone.

Exaudi te Dominus. Psal. 20. T. S.

In trouble and adversity
the Lord God hear thee still,

The Majestie of Jacobs God
defend thee from all ill;

2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need,

And so in Sion stablish thee
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice
that now to him is done:

And so receive right thankfully thy burnt-offerings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire
the Lord grant unto thee

And all thy counsel and device
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us sav'st,
and our banners display

Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace,

And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust:

But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.

8 They fall down flat, but we do rise,
and stand up stedfastly.

9 Now save and help us, Lord and king,
on thee when we do cry.

Domine, in virtute. Psal. 21. T. S.

O Lord, how joyful is the king
in thy strength and thy power!

How vehemently doth he rejoyce
in thee his Saviour!

2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire:

To him nothing thou hast deny'd
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts
and blessings manifold,

And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure:

To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:

Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou

6 Thou wilt give him felicity
that never shall decay;
And with thy cheerful countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the king doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail;
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.

8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand:
Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why? much mischief did they against thy holy Name:
Yet did they fail, and had no power
for to perform the same.

12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place,
And charge thy bow strings readily
against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, therefore in thy strength every hour:
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. 22. T. S.

O God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly,
And helpest not when I do make
my great complaint and cry?

2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call:
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.

3 Even thou that in the sanctuary
and holy place dost dwell,
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever:
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them ay deliver.

5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name:
And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worm
more like then any man:
An outcast whom the people scorn
with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way:
They grin, they mock, they nod their
and on this wise they say.

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love,
Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But Lord, out of my mothers womb
I came by thy request:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her breast.

10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode:

Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou hast been ere my God.

The second part.

11 Then, Lord, depart not now from me
in this my present grief:
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.

12 So many bulls do compass me
that be full strong of head:
Yea bulls so far as though they had
in Balaan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay:
Much like a lion roaring out
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break:
My heart doth in my body melt
like wax against the heat.

15 And like a potherd drieth my
my tongue, it cleaveth fast:
Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust or death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsel eke
Conspire against me curiously;
they pierce my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told:
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments th y divided eke
in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore, I pray thee, be not far from me at my great need:
But rather, sith thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.

20 And from the sword, Lord, save my
by thy might and thy power:
And keep my soul thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.

21 And from the lions mouth, that would me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns,
Lord, safely me deliver.

22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record:
And in thy Church shall praise the Name
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him:
And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.

24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry.

25 Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name.

26 The poor shall eat and be sufficed,
and those that do their devour
To know the Lord, shall praise his Name,
their hearts shall live for ever.

27 All ends of the earth shall praise the
and turn to him for grace:
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.

28 The kingdom of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:
And he shall be their governor
and King for evermore.

29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also:
And in his presence worship him
and bowe their knees full low.

30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste:
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord
while any world shall last.

31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

Dominus regit me. Psal. 23. W. W.

The Lord is only my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing
whereof I stand in need?

2 He doth me fold in coats most fast
the tender grass fast by:
And after drives me to the streams
which run most pleasantly.

3 And when I fee I my self near lost,
then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in his right paths
even for his own Names sake.

4 And though I were even at deaths door,
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherds crook
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt
in despite of my foe;
Thou hast my head with balme refreshed,
my cup doth overflow.

6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same, by T. S.

My shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need;
In pastures fair with waters calm
he sets me forth to feed.

2 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my mind in frame
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.

3 Yea, though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt, O Lord, fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shew'd to me,
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

Dominus est terra. Psal. 24. F. H.

The earth is all the Lords, with all
her store and furniture:
Yea, his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.

2 For he hath surely founded it
above the seas to stand:
And laid alone the liquid floods
to flow beneath the land.

For

3 For who is he, O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill;

Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still?

4 Whose hands are harmless, and whose
no spot there doth defile:
His soul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord shall place in blisful plight,
And God his God and Saviour
shall yield to him his right.

6 This is the brood of brave men,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:

For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.

8 Who is the King of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord,
The mighty Lord in battel stout,
and trial of the sword.

9 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:

For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.

10 Who is the King of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his

Ad te, Domine. Psal. 25. T. S.

Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.

2 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown
that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right ways
unto me, Lord, descry.

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee, Lord, remember;
And eke thy pity piteous,
for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity
Lord have me in thy mind.

7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his ways
the lowly and the meek.

9 For all the ways of God
are truth and mercy both,

To them that keep his testament
the witness of his troth.

The second part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.

11 Whose doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.

12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand,
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the land.

13 All those that fear the Lord
know his secret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.

14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance,
That pluckt me feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.

15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moine:
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortless alone.

16 The troubles of my heart
are multiplied indeed:
Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.

17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain:
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again.

18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still increase,
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.

19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me:
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.

20 Let my simple pureness
me from my enemies shend:
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldst me defend.

21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

Judica me, Domine. Psal. 26. T. S.

Lord, be my judge, and thou shalt see
my paths be right and plain:
I trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.

2 Prove me my God, I thee desire
my ways to search and try:
As men doth prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espy.

3 Thy goodness laid before my face
I durst behold alway:

For of thy truth I read the trace,
and will do all my days.

4 I do not lust to haunt or use
with men whose deeds are vain:
To come in house I do refuse
with the deceitful train.

5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort
that hurtful things devise.

6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
to work to walk upright:

Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee,
And so declare how wondrous ways
thou hast been good to me.

8 O God, thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excel:

I have delight and would be near
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O shut not up my soul with them
in sin that take their fill;

Nor yet my life among those men
that seek much blood to spill.

10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full: (guile,
And their right hand with wretch and for bribes doth pluck and pull. (wile

11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and days to serve:

Have mercy, Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.

12 My foot is stay'd for all assays,
it standeth well and right:

Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples fight.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. 27. 7. H.

The Lord is both my health and light,
I shall man make me dismayd?

Sith God doth give me strength and why should I be afraid? (might,

2 While that my foes with all their begin with me to brall, (strength
And think to eat me up, at length themselves have caught the fall.

3 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid:

In battel pight if they will trie,
I trust in God for aid.

4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny:

For which I pray, and will desire
till he to me apply:

5 That within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,

To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.

6 In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure,

And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace
shall make me strong and stout,

My foes to foil and clean deface,
that compass me about.

8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:

With Psalms and songs I will apply
to laud the Lord alway.

The second part.

9 Lord, hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call:

Have mercy, Lord, on me oppressd,
and send me help withall.

10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee
I sue to have thy grace:

Then seek my face, sayst thou to me;
Lord, I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:

Thou:

Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide, 12 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large:
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord; the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right,
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not betake me to the will
of them that be my foes:
For they surmise against me still false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast,
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see
in life that ay shall last.
16 Trust still in God whose whole thou
his will abide thou must, (art)
And he shall ease and strength thy heart
if thou in him do trust.

Ad te, Dom. clamabo. Psal. 28. T. S.

Thou art, O Lord, my strength and the succour which I crave: (stay; Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.

2 The voice of they suppliant hear,
that unto thee doest cry,
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high

3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert,
That speak right fair unto their friends,
and think full ill in heart.

4 According to their handy-work,
as they deserve indeed,
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law, ne yet his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.

6 To render thanks unto the Lord
how great a cause have I,
My voice, my prayer, and my complaint
that heard so willingly!

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress,
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess.

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
Lord bless, guide, and preserve:
Increase them, Lord, & rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

Afferte Domino. Psal. 29. T. S.

Give to the Lord, ye potentates,
ye rulers of the world,
Give ye all praise honour and strength
unto the living Lord,

2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:
Worship him in his majesty
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder claps,
and governs all the seas.

Psal. XXVIII. XXIX. XXX. XXXI.

4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend & break
the cedar trees so long;
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong:

6 And makes them leap like as a calf,
or else the unicorn,
Not only trees, but mountains great whereon the trees are born.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:
8 It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cadesch.

9 It makes the hinds for fear to calve,
and makes the coverts plain:
Then in his temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.

10 The Lord is set above the floods,
ruling the raging sea:
So shall he reign as Lord and king
for ever and for ay,

11 The Lord will give his people power
in vertue to increase:
The Lord will bless his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

Exaltabo te, Domine. Psal. 30. T. S.

All laud and praise with heart and
O Lord, I give to thee, (voice)
Which didst not make my foes rejoyce,
but hast exalted me.

2 O Lord my God, to thee I cri'd
in all my pain and grief:
Thou gav'st an ear, and didst provide
to ease me with relief.

3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save:
Thou didst revive when strength did and kept'st me from the grave. (lack,

4 Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and the goodness of the Lord: (see In memory of his Majesty
rejoyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a space
doth last and slack again;
But in his favour and his grace
always doth life remain.

Though gripes of grief and pangs full shall lodge with us all night, (fore
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Tush I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace
hast sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my mind was sore dismayd.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my days:
Doth dust declare thy majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise?

10 Wherefore my God some pity take,
O Lord, I thee desire:

Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee requite.
11 Then didst thou turn my grief and wo
into a cheerful voice:
The mourning-weed thou took'st from me
and mad'st me to rejoyce.

12 Wherefore my soul unceasingly
shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks always.

In te, Domine. Psal. 31. J. H.
O Lord, I put my trust in thee;
let nothing work me shame:
As thou art just, deliver me,
and set me quit from blame.

2 Hear me, O Lord, and thar anon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need

3 For why? as stones thy strength is tri'd
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy Names sake be thou my guide,
an lead me in thy power.

4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare
which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid:

5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit
my spirit which is thy due:
For why; thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd:
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and knowest my soul full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand
that would me overcharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second part.
9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assail,
some pity on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail,
my womb for wo doth ache.

10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my years in wo are past,
My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and waste.

11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismayd:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born
to see me are afraid,

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they find
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray,
How they conspir'd and went about
to take my life away.

14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid,
not to be ever trod:
For I confess and still have said,
Thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy sin a it, Lord, expresse
and shew thy joyfull face:
And save me, Lord, for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:

But let the wicked bear the shame,
and in the grave to fall.

18 O Lord, make dumb their lips outright,
which are addit to lies,

And cruelly with pride and spight
against the just devise.

19 O how great good hast thou in store
laid up full safe for them

That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sons of men! (guide)

20 Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs:

Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so far,

Me to defend with warch and waro,
as in a town of war.

22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress'd,

Lo, I was clean cast out of fight,
yet heardst thou my request.

23 Ye saints, love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithful he doth guide:

And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride. (heart)

24 Be strong, and God shall stay your
be bold and have a lust:

For sure the Lord will take your part,
fith ye in him do trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxij.

The man is blest whose wickedness
the Lord hath clean remitted:

And he whose sin and wickedness
is hid and also covered.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin:

Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint,

My bones did wear and waste away
with daily mone and plaint.

4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,

That all my blood and humours moist
to dryness did convert.

5 I did therefore confesse my fault
and all my sins discover:

Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins pass over.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:

So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adversity
do compass me about,

Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.

8 Come hither, and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright:

I will thee guide as I my self have learn'd by proof and fight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule,

Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.

10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain:

But unto him that trusts in God
his goodness shall remain

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice:

And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxij. I. H.

Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce;
it is a seemly fight,

That upright men with thankful voice
should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in psalms and pleasant things:

With lute and instrument among
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:

4 For why this word is ever true,
his works and all his ways.

5 To judgement, equity, and right
he hath a great good will:

And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens were all wrought:

Their hosts and power every one
his breath to pass hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore:

And hid them in the depth to be,
as in an house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most,
fear God and keep his law:

Yet that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.

9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed:

What he doth will is brought to pass
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:

He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:

The motions of his mind and will take place in every age.

The second part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:

Whom he doth choose of meer accord
to take them as his own.

13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight
on men mortal by birth:

14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers of the earth.

15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath mans heart, and deth it frame: (wrought)

For he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.

16 A king that trusteth in his host shall nought prevail at length:

The man that of his might doth boast shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troops of horsemen eke shall fail,
their sturdy steeds shall sterve:

The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.

18 But lo, the eyes of God intend
and watch to aid the just:

With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust:

19 That he of death and great distress
may set their souls from dread:

And if that dearth their land oppress,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay:

He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soul in God hath joy and game,
rejoycing in his might:

For why? in his most holy name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord,
still present with us be:

As we always with one accord
do only trust in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Psal. xxxiv. I. S.

I will give laud and honour both unto the Lord always,

And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul and eke in voice:

That humble men and mortifi'd
may hear and so rejoyce

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord;

And let us now exalt his name
together with one accord.

4 For I my self befought the Lord,
he answered me again,

And me deliver'd incontinent
from all my fear and pain.

5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear:

Their countenance shall not be dash'd;
they need it not to fear.

6 This silly wretch for some relief
unto the Lord did call;

Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place,

To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore that God is good and just:

O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust!

9 Fear ye the Lord, ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing:

For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

10 The lions shall be hunger-bir,
and pin'd with famine much:

But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

11 Come near therefore, my children dear,
and to my words give ear:

I shall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a godly life?

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:

Enquire for peace and quietness,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why? the eyes of God above
upon the just are bent:

His ears likewise do hear the plaint
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brows
up on the wicked train:

And cuts away the memory
that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,

That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kind and straight at hand
to such as be contrite:

He saves also the sorrowful,
the poor and meek in spite.

19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer:

But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth to preserve and keep his very bones away,

That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought:

And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought,

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound:

And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Judica me, Domine. Psal. 35. 7. H.

Lord, plead my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might:

Fight on my part against all those
that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand up on the spear and shield,
thy self in arm ur drels:

Stand up for me, and fight the field,
to help me from distress.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand:

That thou unto my soul mayst say,
Lo I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seek my soul to spill:

Let them turn back, and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust:

And that the angel of our God
their might away may thrust.

6 Let a I their ways be void of light,
and slippery like to fall:

And send thine angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have
in secret set their gin:

And for no cause have digg'd a cave
to take my soul therein.

8 When they think least and have no care,
O Lord, destroy them all:

Let them be trap in their one snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my soul my heart and voice,
in God have joy and wealth:

That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his saving health.

Psal. 35. 10. H.

10 And then my bones shall speak and
my parts all shall agree:

O Lord, though they do seem full gay,
what man is like to thee?

The second part.
11 Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong:

And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.

12 My cruel foes against me rise
to witness things untrue:

And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.

13 Where I to them did ow good will,
they quit me with disdain:

That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.

14 When they were sick I mourn'd there-
and clad my self in sack:

With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.

15 As they had been my brethren dear,
I did my self behave:

As one that maketh woful cheer
about his mothers grave.

16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout:

Yea, abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout.

17 The belley-gods and flattering train,
that all good things deride,

At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouthes aside.

18 Lord when wilt thou amend this gear?
why dost thou slay and pause?

O rid my soul mine only dear,
out of these lions claws.

19 And then will I give thanks to thee
before the Church always:

And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:

Nor yet to wink or turn their eye,
that causeless me assault.

The third part.
21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue:

They still consult and would betray
all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they flee:

Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.

23 But, Lord, thou seest what ways they cease not this gear to mend:

Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:

Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God, set me free:

And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoice and cry,
There, there, this gear goes trim:

Nor give them cause to say on high,
we have our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke and that joy when I do mourn:

That joy when I do mourn: (shame

And pay them home with spite and that brag at me with scorn.

28 Let them be glad and eke rejoice,
which love mine upright way:

And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say,

29 Great is the Lord, and doth excel,
for why? he doth delight

To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.

30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply
thy righteousness to praise:

Unro the Lord my God will I sing laud and praise always.

Dixit injustus. Psal. 35. 9. H.
T He wicked with his work unjust
doth thus persuade his heart,

That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his fear is set apart.

2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began,

So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught,
his tongue no truth doth tell:

Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.

4 When he should sleep, then doth he
his mischiefs to fulfil:

No wicked ways doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.

5 But, Lord, thy goodness doth ascend
above the heavens high:

So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy skie.

6 Much more then hills so high and steep,
thy justice is exprest:

Thy judgment's like to Eastmost deep,
thou sav'st both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God, it doth excel:

In trust whereof, as in thy wings,
the sons of men shall dwell.

8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plenty at their will:

Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee:

And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.

10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart:

Thy righteousness declare and show
to men of upright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord, of thy good grace:

Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their device shall fall
that wicked works maintain:

They shall be overthrown withal,
and never rise again.

Noli amulari. Psal. 37. 1. H.
G Rudge not to see the wicked men
in wealth to flourish still:

Nor yet envy such as so ill
have bent and set their will.

2 For as green grass and flourishing herbs
are cut, and whither away:

So shall their great prosperity
soon pass, fade, and decay.

3 Trust

3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind:
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shall find.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst with in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.

5 Cast both thy self and thine affairs
on God with perfect trust,
And thou shalt see with patience
th' effect both sure and just.
6 Thy perfect life and Godly name
he will clear as the light:
So that the Sun even at noon-day
shall not shine half so bright.
7 Be still therefore, and steadfastly on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosperous state,
of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake off despiteful, envy and hate,
at least in any wife:
Their wicked steps avoid and flee,
and follow not their guise.
9 For every wicked man will God
destroy, both more and less:
But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to possess.
10 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train,
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.

The second part

11 But merciful and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land:
In rest and peace they shall rejoyce,
for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious
against the just conspire:
They gnash their teeth at him, as men
which do his bane desire.
13 But while that lewd men thus do
the Lord laughs them to scorn: (think,
For why? he sees their term approach,
when they shall sigh and mourn.
14 The wicked have their sword out their bowecke have they bent, (drawn,
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as he the right way went.
15 But the same sword shall pierce their
which was to kill the just: (heart,
Likewise the bow shall break to shivers,
wherein they put their trust.
16 Doubtless the just mans poor estate
is better a great deal more Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.
17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow:
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.
18 He sees by his great providence
the good mans trade and way:
And will give them inheritance
which never shall decay.
19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard bested:
When others shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be clad and fed.
20 For whi soever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord,

Shall smell yeasme even as lambs
or smoke that flies abroad. (grease,

The third part.

21 Behold, the wicked borrows much,
and never pays again:
Whereas the just by liberal gifts
makes many glad and fain.
22 For they whom God doth bless, shall the land for heritage: (have
And they whi mne doth curse, likewise
shall perish in his rage.
23 The Lord the just mans ways doth and gives him good success: (guide,
To every thing he takes in hand
he sendeth good address.
24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail:
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand
at need, and doth not fail.
25 I have been young, and now am old:
yet did I never see
The just man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery.
26 But gives always most liberally,
and lends whereas is need:
His children and posterity
receive of God their meed.
27 Flee vice therefore and wickedness,
and vertue do embrace;
So God shall grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.
28 For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace,
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.
29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,
Having as lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
30 The just mans mouth shall ever speak
of matters wise and high:
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.
31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that wherever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
32 The wicked like a ravening wolf
the just man doth beset,
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.
34 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.
35 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree,
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the laurel tree.
36 But suddenly he past away,
and so, he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.
37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:

For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.
38 As for transgressours, wo to them,
destroy'd they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.

39 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aid,
of his meer grace and love.
40 God doth them help, save, and deliver from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

Domine, ne Psal. 38. 7. H

Put me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavy wrath, O Lord,
correct me I desire.
2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth press me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all
appeareth any more.
3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones
by reason of my sin.
4 For lo, my wicked doings, Lord,
above my head are gone:
A greater load then I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.
5 My wounds stink and are fest'ed so,
as lothsom is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishness
berideth unto me.
6 And I in careful wife am brought
in trouble and distress:
That I go wailing all the day
in dolorful heaviness.
7 My loyns are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roar for grief of heart.
9 Thou know'st, Lord, my desire, my are open in thy sight: (groans 10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth mine eyes have left their light. (fail, 11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinsmen far away
are me departed fro.
12 They that did seek my life, laid snares,
and they that sought the way.
To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought
on mischief all the day.

The second part.

13 But as a deaf man I became;
that cannot hear at all:
14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
15 For all my confidence, O Lord,
is wholly set one thee:
O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.
16 This did I crave, that they my foes
triumph not over me:
For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.
17 And truly I poor wretch am set
in place a woful wight:

And eke my grievous heaviness
is ever in my sight.

18 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wise confesse;
And while I for my sinful deeds
my sorrows do expresse:

19 My foes do still remain alive,
and mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me that my good
with evil do repay:

Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far away:

22 Hasten me to help, my Lord my God,
my safety and my stay.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. 39. 7. H.

I said, I will look to my ways,
for fear I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bir I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in sight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:
Yea, from good talk I did refrain,
but fore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my breast,
with musing, thought, and doubt,
Which did increase and stir the fire:
at last these words burst out:

5 Lord, number out my life and days
which yet I have not past,
So that I may be certifi'd
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord, thou hast pointed out my life
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy
In getting goods, and cannot tell
who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now, Lord, such things this wife do what help do I desire? (frame,
Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord, quit me out of hand,
And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord, take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand: (plague,
I faint and pine away for fear
of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan,
As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
so vain a thing is man.

13 Lord, hear my suit & give good heed
regard my tears that fall:

Psal. 41. 11. H.

I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore,
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

Expectans Expectavi. Psal. 41. 7. H.

I waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did bear:

At length to me he did accord
my voice and eye to hear.

2 He pluckt me from the lake so deep
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad,
And ting new songs of thanks always unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk these things shall see,
as people much afraid,
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.

5 O Blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain,
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and fain.

6 For, Lord my God, thy wondrous in greatness far do pass: (deeds Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to shew,
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-off rings thou delight'st not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sin
thou dost no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou would'st not have at all:
But thou, O Lord, hast open made mine ears to hear with all.

10 But then said I, Behold and look,
I come a mean to be:
For in the volume of thy book
thus is it said of me,

11 That I, O God, should do thy mind,
which things doth like me well:
For in my heart thy law I find
fast placed there to dwell.

12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell:
Behold, my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord, thou know'st full well.

The second part.

13 I have not hid within my breast
thy goodness as by stealth:
But I declare and have exprest
thy truth and saving health.

14 I kept not close thy loving mind,
that no man should it know:
The trust that in thy truth I find,
to all the Church I shew.

15 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me
withdraw thou not away:
But let thy love and verity
preserve me still for ay.

16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about:

My sins increase and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head:
My heart doth faint for every dread,
that I am almost dead.

18 With speed send help and set me free,
O Lord I thee require:
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.

19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame
that seek my soul to spill:
Drive back my foes, and them defame
that wish and would me ill.

20 For their ill teats do them descry
that would deface my name:
Always at me they rail and cry,
Fie on him, fie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that seek to thee always:
That those that love thy saving health
may say, To God be praise.

22 But at for me, I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low:
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, help and stay:
Wherefore may God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. 41. T. S.

The man is blest that careful is
the needy to consider:
For in the season perilous
the Lord will him deliver.

2 The Lord will make him safe and sound,
and happy in the land:
And he will not deliver him:
into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore:
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
his sickness and his sore.

4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
have mercy Lord on me,
And heal my soul which is full wo
that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wisht me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say,
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away?

6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well:
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me charm,
And cast their fetches how to trap
me with some mortal harm.

8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain:
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not again.

9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit:
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.

10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore,
and let me be preserv'd:
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserv'd.

11 By this I know assuredly
to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause
to triumph over me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assign'd
where I shall dwell for ay.
13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore:
Even so be it, Lord, will I say,
even so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. 42. J.H.

Like as the hart doth breathe and bray
the well-springs to obtain;
So doth my soul desire alway
with thee, Lord, to remain.
2 My soul doth thirst and would draw near the living God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appear
in presence of his sight!
3 The tears all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedom once I had!
Therefore my soul as at pits brink
most heavy is and sad.
When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most fain.
5 My soul, why art thou sad always,
and fret'st thus in my breast?
Trust still in God; for him to praise
I hold it ever best.
By him I have succour at need,
against all pain and grief:
He is my God, which with all speed
will haste to send relief.
6 And thus my soul within me, Lord,
doth faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second part.

7 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodness
and help at all essays:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.
9 I am persuaded thus to say
to him with pure pretence,
O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.
Why do I then in penitence
hanging the head thus walk,
While that mine enemies me oppress,
and vex me with their talk?
10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhorr'd,
When they cry out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain oppress?
With thoughts why dost thy self assail
so sore within my breast?

Psalms. xlii, xliii, xliii, xliii.

12 Trust in the Lord thy God always,
and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with loud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

Judas me, Domine. Psal. 43. T.S.

Judge and revenge my cause, O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitful men,
O Lord, deliver me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why putt'st thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe?
3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace,
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling-place.
4 Then shall I to the altar go
of God my joy and cheer:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most dear.
5 Why art thou then so sad, my soul,
and fret'st thus in my breast?
Still trust in God; for him to praise
I hold it always best.
6 By him I have deliverance
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alway
at need send me relief.

Deus auribus. Psal. 44. T.S.

Our ears have heard our fathers tell,
and reverently record
The wondrous works that thou hast done
in older time, O Lord.
2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and stroyd'st them with strong hand:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.
3 They conquered not by sword nor the land of thy behest: (strength
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace;
because thou lov'd'st them best.
4 Thou art my king, O God, that help
Jacob in sundry wise.
5 Led with thy power, we threw down such as did against us rise.

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me sound:
7 Thou kept'st us from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.
8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:
9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
but leave'st us to shame.
10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes,
and so were overtrod:
Our enemies robb'd and spoil'd our goods,
when we were spent abroad.
11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:
Amongst the heathen every where
scatter'd we do remain.
12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought:
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was sought.
13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
of us a laughing-stock:
And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk:
They mock, they scorn, they nod their where e're they go or walk. (heads 15 I am ashamed continually,
to hear these wicked men:
Yea so I blush, that all my face
with red is covered then.
16 For why? we hear such slanderous words
such false reports and lies:
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.
17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy cov'nant brake:
18 We turn not back our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy paths forsake.
19 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be,
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.
20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and help of idols sought, 21 Would not God then have tri'd this out?
for he doth know our thought.
22 Nay, nay, for thy Names sake, O Lord, always are we slain thus:
As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
23 Up Lord, why sleepest thou? awake,
and leave us not for all:
24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall?
25 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:
Our belly, like as it were glu'd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
26 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us, Lord, at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed.

Eructavit. Psal. 45. J.H.

My heart doth take in hand
some godly song to sing
The praise that I shall shew therein
pertaineth to the king.
2 My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe
that useth fast to write.
3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts
for ever to endure.
4 About thee gird thy sword,
O prince of might elect:
With honour, glory, and renown
thy person pure is deckt.
5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meekness, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadful might.
6 Thine arrows sharp and keen
their hearts to sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea, all thy foes, O king.
7 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
Because the scepter of thy realm
doth righteousness maintain.

8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest,
God, even thy God hath appointed thee
with joy above the rest.

9 With myrrh and favours sweet
thy clothes are all bespread:
When thou dost from thy palace pass,
therein to make thee glad.
10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

11 O daughter, take good heed,
incline and give good ear:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
12 Then shall the king desire
thy beauty fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see,
And all the wealthy of the land
shall make their suit to thee.

14 The daughter of the king
is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit
all deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:
With virgins fair on her to wait,
she cometh to the king.

16 Thus are they brought with joy
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they do abide.

17 Instead of parents left,
(O queen, the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sons whom thou may'st
as princes in all lands.
18 Wherefore thy holy Name
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee
for evermore, O Lord.

Deus noster. Psal. 46. J. H.

The Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismay'd,
he is our help at hand.
2 Though th' earth remove, we will not though hills so high and steep (fear,
Be thir'd and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.

3 No, though the waves do rage so fore
that all the banks it spills:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.

4 For one fair flood doth send abroad
his pleasant streams apace,
To fresh the city of our God,
and wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebel
the Lord will truly slay.

6 The heathen folk, the kingdoms fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.

Psal. xlii, xlvii, xlviii, xlix.

7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart
on Jacobs God doth lie.

8 Come here and see with mind and the working of our God: (thought What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

9 By him all wars are hush'd and gone,
which countreys did conspire:
Their bows he brake and spears each one
their chariots burnt with fire.

10 Leave off therefore (saith he) & know
I am a God most stout,
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. 47. J. H.

YE people all with one accord
clap hands and eke rejoyce:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord
with sweet and pleasant voice.

2 For high the Lord and dreadful is,
with wonders manifold:
A mighty king he is truly,
in all the earth extoll'd.

3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall.

4 For us the heritage he chose
which we possess alone,
The flourishing worship of Jacob
his welbelov'd one.

5 Our God ascended up on high
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the sky
with trumpets royal voice.

6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our king:
7 For God is king of all the earth,
all skilful praises sing.

8 God on the heathen reigns, and sits
upon his holy throne:
The princes of the people have them joynd every one To Abrahams people: for our God,
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend
the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. 48. J. H.

Great is the Lord, and with great praise
so be advanced still Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Zion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The city of the mighty king
on her north-side doth stand.

3 Within the palaces thereof
God is a refuge known:
For lo, the kings are gather'd, and
together they are gone.

4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly
were driven back with fear.

5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry:
As doth a woman when she shall go travail by and by.

6 As thou with eastern wind the ships
upon the sea dost break,
So they were 'stroy'd: and even as
we heard our fathers speak;

7 So in the city of the Lord
we saw as it was told;
Yea, in the city which our God
for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord, we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord, according to thy Name
for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.

10 Let, for thy judgments, Sion mount fulfilled be with joys:
And eke of Judah grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoyce.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea, round about her go;
And tell the towers that thereupon
are builded on a row.

12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he:
Yea, and unto the death also
our Guider shall he be.

Audite hac, omnes. Psal. 49. J. H.

All people hearken and give ear
to that that I shall tell,
2 Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.

3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse
of many things right wise:
In understanding shall mine heart
his study exercise.

4 I will incline mine ear to know
the parable so dark:
And open all my doubtful speech
in metre on my harp.

5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any careful toyl:
Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil?

6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most:
And they which of their treasures great,
themselves do brag and boast;

7 There is not one of them that can
his brothers death redeem
Or that can give a price to God:
sufficient for him.

8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain:
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remain.

9 They see wise men, as well as fools,
subject unto deaths bands:
And being dead, strangers possess
their goods, their rents, their lands.

10 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure.

To make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.
11 Yet shall no man always enjoy
high honour, wealth, and rest;
12 But shall at length taste of death's cup
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

13 And though they try their foolish
to be most lewd and vain: (thoughts
Their children yet approve their talk,
and in like sin remain.
14 As sheep into the fold are brought,
so shall they into grave:
Death shall them eat, and in that day
the just shall lordship have.
15 Their image and their royal port shall fade and quite decay,
When as from house to pit they pass
with wo and well-away.
16 But God will surely preserve me
from death and endless pain:
Because he will of his good grace
my soul receive again.

17 If any man wax wondrous rich,
fear not, I say, therefore:
Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.
18 For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive:
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.
19 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under sun:
And others likewise flatter him,
saying, All is well done.
20 And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old;
Yet must he needs at length give place,
and be brought to death's fold.

21 Thus man to honour God hath yet doth he not consider: (brought,
But like brute beasts so doth he live,
which turn to dust and powder.

Deus Deorum. Psalm 1. W. W.

THe mighty God,
th'eternal hath thus spoke,
And all the world
he will call and provoke:
Even from the east,
and so forth to the west.
2 From toward Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear
in beauty most excellent:
Our God will come
before that long time be spent.
3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face;
A great tempest
shall round about him trace.
4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right.

5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble:
My pact they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.
6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness:

For God is judge
of all things more and less.

7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal,
Lift Israel,
I will thee nought conceal.
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee 8 Forgiving not
all manner offerings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall:
10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods:
Of thousand hills
cattel are mine own goods:

11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains:
All beasts are mine
which haunt the fields and fountains.
12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell;
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eat I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks?
Or drink the blood
of goats, or of the flocks?
14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God everliving.

15 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.
16 To the wicked
thus saith th'eternal God,
Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad:

17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hast fit to be
by discipline reformed?
My words, I say,
thou dost reject and hate:

18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou runn'st with him,
and so your prey do seek;
And art all one
with bands and ruffians eke.

19 Thou giv'st thy self
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives it is a wonder.

20 Thou sitt'st musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put
thy mothers son to shame.

21 These things thou did'st
and whilst I held my tongue, Thou did'st me judge:
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence,

Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompense.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,

And fear not when
he threatneth with his word:
Left without help
I spoil you as a prey.
23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me ay,
Saith the Lord God:
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same, by J. H.

THe God of gods, the Lord,
hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the sun doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.
4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth to judge and try,
his folk he doth devise.

5 Bring forth my saints, saith he,
my faithful flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.
6 And when these things are tri'd,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just, and all must bide
the judgment of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.
8 I do not say to thee
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me
much more than I do lack.

9 Think'st thou that I do need thy cattel young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on goats out of thy fold?
10 Nay; all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fills:
And thousands more of neat and kine,
that run wild on the hills.

The second part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight:
And beast that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.

12 Then though I hungered sore,
what need I ought of thine,
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?

13 To bulls flesh have I mind
to eat it dost thou think?
Or such a sweetness do I find
the blood of goats to drink?

14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.

15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame.

And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my Name.
16 But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say, 17 With what a face dar'st thou
my word once speak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?
18 Whereas for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behind thy back.

The third part.

19 When thou a thief dost see
by theft to live in wealth,
With him thou runn'st and doth agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.
20 When thou dost them behold
that wives and maids defile,
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold
to use that life most vile.
21 Thy lips thou dost apply
to slander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth use the same.
22 Thou studiest to revile
thy friends to thee so near:
With slander thou would'st needs defile
thy mother's son most dear.
23 Hereat while I do wink,
as though I did not see,
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
24 But sure I will not let
to strike, when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set
and open all thy sin.
25 Mark this I you require,
that have not God in mind:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to find.
26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise,
Doth please me well, and he shall see
to walk in godly ways.

Miserere mei. Psal. 51. W. W.

O Lord, consider, my distress,
and now with speed some pity take:
My sins deface, my faults redress,
good Lord, for thy great mercies sake.
2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean
from this unjust and sinful act,
And purifie yet once again
my hainous crime and bloody fact.
3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excels:
My sin alas doth still remain
before my face without release.
4 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgments just and right.
5 It is too manifest alas
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea, of my mother so born was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.
6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:

Psal. 51. iii.

Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd me to convert.
7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glass:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whiteness shall I pass.
8 Therefore, O Lord, such joy me send,
that inwardly I may find grace,
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespass.
9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins, I thee desire,
which do in number pass the sand.
10 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant Spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy Spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
12 Restore me to those joys again
which I was wont in thee to find:
And let me thy free Spirit retain,
which unto thee may stir my mind.
13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall flee sin.
14 O God, that of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue unty,
O Lord, which art the only key:
And then my mouth shall testify
thy wondrous works and praise alway.
16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.
17 The heavy heart the mind oppress,
O Lord, thou never dost reject:
And, to speak truth, it is the best,
and of all sacrifice th'effect.
18 Lord, unto Sion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on thy hill,
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls, and love it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings
of peace and righteousness, I say:
Yea calves and many other things
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same, by J. H.

HAVE mercy on me, Lord, after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude
do thou my sins deface.
2 Yea wash me in ore from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sin:
For I do know my faults, and still
my sin is in mine eye.
3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face:
4 That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou may'st be try'd,

And eke in judging, that the doom
may pass upon thy side.

5 Behold, in wickedness my kind
and shape I did receive:
And lo my sinful mother eke
in sin did me conceive.
6 But lo, the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee:
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.
8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:
That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord, turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface.
10 O God, create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels, Lord,
renew a stable spirit.
11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:
The comfort of thy saving health
give me again, I pray.
12 With thy free Spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore Sinners thy ways, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me:
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.
14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou, O Lord, unloose:
The praises of thy Majestic
my mouth shall so disclose.
15 I would have off'red sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt-off'rings
I know thou wilt not be.
16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice
delightful in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God, thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deal gently, Lord,
to Sion, and withall Grant that of thy Jerusalem
uprear'd may be the wall.
18 Burn-off'rings, gifts, and sacrifice
of justice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. 52. J. H.

WHY dost thou tyrant boast abroad
thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last alway?
2 Why doth thy mind yet still devise
such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
is like a razor sharp.
3 On mischief why set'st thou thy mind,
and wilt not walk upright?

Thou

4 God promise I do mind and praise,
O Lord, I stick to thee:
I do not care at all essays
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake,
they wrest them at their will:

And all the counsel that they take
is how to work me ill.

6 They all consent themselves to hide,
close watch for me to lay:

They spy my paths, and snares have t'ld
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set?
thou God on them wilt frown:

For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdoms down.

8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
and on my tears dost look:

Reserve them in a glass by thee,
and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do start:

I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.

10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:

With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began,

The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.

12 I will perform with heart so free
to God my vows always:

And I, O Lord, all times to thee
will offer thanks and praise.

13 My soul from death thou dost defend,
and keep'st my feet upright:

That I before thee may ascend
with such as live in light.

Miserere mei. Psal. 57. J. H.

Take pity for thy promise sake,
have mercy, Lord, on me:
For why? my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.

2 VVithin the shadow of thy wings
I set my self full fast,

Till mischief, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.

3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:

I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.

4 From heaven he hath sent his aid,
to save me from their spight,

That to devour me have assaid,
his mercy, truth, and might.

5 I lead my life with lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:

And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fret like flames of fire.

6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long
as sharp as I have seen:

They wound and cut with their quick likeswords and weap'ns keen (congue)

7 Set up and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:

Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:

Psalm 58. J. H.
VVherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are fall'n in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy always:

My heart, I say, doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.

10 Awake, my joy, awake, I say,
my lute, my harp, and string:

For I my self before the day
will rise, rejoyce, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodness of my God,

And shew his praise that doth excel,
in hearken lands abroad.

12 His mercy doth extend as far as heavens all are high:

His truth as high as any star
that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:

Extol thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

Si vera utique. Psal. 58. J. H.

YE rulers that are put in trust
to judge of wrong and right,

Be all your judgments true and just,
not knowing meed or might;

2 Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muse,
in mischief to consent,

And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wise:

And from their mothers womb alway
have used craft and lies.

4 In them the poyson and the breath
of serpents do appear:

Yea, like the adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her ear,

5 Because she will not hear the voice
of one that charmeth well:

No, though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excel.

6 O God, break thou their teeth at once within their mouths throughout:

The tusks that in their great jaw-bones
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forth right:

The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:

As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the sun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:

The storms of anger waxing strong shall take them ere they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take:

And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth & tell
that good men have reward:

And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

Eripe me. Psal. 59. J. H.

Send aid and save me from my foes
O Lord, I pray to thee:

Defend and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord, preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good:

And set me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

3 For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:

Yea, for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:

Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hosts of Israel,
arise and strike all lands:

And pity none that do rebel,
and in their mischiefs stand.

6 At night they stir and seek about,
as hounds they howl and grin:

And all the city clean throughout,
from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords:

They greed my death, and then would say what? none doth hear our words.

8 But, Lord, thou hast their ways espy'd
and laught thereat apace:

The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes withand,
O Lord, doth come from thee:

My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me:

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace
in great abundance still:

That I may see my foes in case
such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord,
lest it from mind do fall:

But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words and truthless tongue
confound them in their pride:

Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong,
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord
that nought of them remain:

That men may know throughout the
that Jacobs God doth reign. (world)

14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and cry:

Throughout the streets in every place
they run about and spy.

15 They seek about for meat, I say,
but let them not be fed:

Nor find a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodness I will praise:

For thou art my defence and God
at need in all essays.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me
O Lord, I sing to thee: (staid)

Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a loving God to me.

Deus, repulisti. Psal. 60. J. H.

O Lord, thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatterd'st us abroad:

Such

ach great displeasure thou didst take ;
 7 Thy might did move the land so sore,
 that it in sunder brake:
 The hurt thereof, O Lord, restore,
 for it doth bowe and quake.
 3 With heavy chauce thou plaguest thus
 the people that are thine:
 And thou hast given unto us
 a drink of deadly wine.
 4 But yet to such as fear thy Name
 a banner thou didst shew:
 That they may triumph in the same,
 because thy word is true.
 5 So that thy might may keep and save
 thy folk that favour thee:
 That they thy help at hand may have,
 O Lord, grant this to me.
 6 The Lord did speak from his own place,
 this was his joyful tale,
 I will divide Sichem by pace,
 and mete out Succoths vale.
 7 Gilead is given to my hand,
 Manasses mine beside:
 Ephraim the strength of all my land,
 my law doth Judah guide.
 8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
 over Edom throw my shoe:
 And thou Palestine ought'st to seek for favour me unto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide unto the city strong?
 Or who to Edom will me guide,
 so that I go not wrong?
 10 Wilt thou not God, which didst forsake
 thy folk, their land, and coasts?
 Our wars in hand thou would'st not take,
 nor walk among our hosts.
 11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain:
 The help that hosts of men can give,
 it is but all in vain.
 12 But through our God we shall have to take great things in hand: (might)
 He will tread down and put to flight
 all those that us withstand.

Exaudi, Deus. Psal. 61. 7. H.

Regard O Lord, for I complain,
 and make my suit to thee:
 Let not my words return in vain,
 but give an ear to me.
 2 From out the coasts and utmost parts
 of all the earth abroad,
 In grief and anguish of my heart
 I cry to thee, O God.
 3 Upon the rock of thy great power
 my woful mind repose:
 Thou art my hope, my fort and towre,
 my fence against my foes.
 4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
 for ever to endure:
 Under thy wings I know right well
 I shall be safe and sure.
 5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
 and doth fulfil the same:
 With godly gifts will he reward
 all those that fear his Name.
 6 The king shall be in health maintain,
 and so prolong his days:
 That he from age to age shall reign,
 for evermore always.

7 That he may have a dwelling place
 before the Lord for ay:
 O let thy mercy, truth and grace,
 defend him from decay.
 8 Then shall I sing for ever still with praise unto thy Name:
 That all my vows I may fulfil,
 and daily pay the same.

Nonne Deo. Psal. 62. 7. H.

MY soul to God shall give good heed,
 and him alone attend:
 For why? my health and hope to speed
 doth whole on him depend.
 2 For he alone is my defence,
 my rock, my health, and aid:
 He is my stay, that no pretence
 shall make me much dismay.
 3 O wicked folk, how long will ye
 use craft? sure ye must fall:
 For as a rotten hedge ye be,
 and like a tottering wall.
 4 Whom God doth love, ye seek always
 to put him to the worse:
 Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
 and yet your heart doth curse.
 5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire:
 From all ill feats me to defend,
 none but him I require.
 6 He is my rock, my fort and towre,
 my health is of his grace:
 He doth support me, that no power
 can move me out of place.
 7 God is my glory and my health,
 my souls desire and lust:
 My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
 God is my only trust.
 8 Oh have your trust in him, alway,
 ye folk with one accord:
 Pour out your hearts to him and say,
 our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceitful are,
 on balance but a sleight:
 With things most vain do them compare,
 for they can keep no weight.
 10 Trust not in wrong, robb'ry, nor let vain delights be gone: (stealth, Though goods well got flow in with set not your hearts thereon. (wealth, 11 The Lord long since one thing did tell,
 which here to mind I call:
 He spake it oft, I heard it well,
 That God alone doth all.
 12 And that thou, Lord, art good and kind,
 thy mercy doth exceed:
 So that all sorts with thee shall find
 according to their deed.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. 63. T. S.

O God my God, I watch betime
 to come to thee in haste:
 For why? my soul and body both
 do thirst of thee to taste.
 And in this barren wilderness
 where waters there are none,
 My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
 for thee I wish alone.
 2 That I might see yet once again
 thy glory, strength, and might,
 As I was wont it to behold
 within thy temple bright.

3 For why? thy mercies far surmount
 this life and wretched days:
 My lips therefore shall give to thee
 due honour, land and praise.
 4 And whilst I live, I will not fail
 to worship thee alway:
 And in thy Name I shall lift up
 my hands when I do pray.
 5 My soul is fill'd as with marrow,
 which is both fat and sweet:
 My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
 as are for thee most meet;
 6 When as in bed I think on thee,
 and eke all the night-tide.
 7 For under covert of thy wings,
 thou art my joyful guide.
 8 My soul doth surely stick to thee,
 thy right hand is my power:
 9 And those that seek my soul to stroy,
 them death shall soon devour.
 10 The sword shall them devour each one,
 their carcases shall feed
 The hungry foxes which do run
 their prey to seek at need.
 11 The king and all men shall rejoyce,
 that do profess Gods word:
 For liars mouthes shall then be stopt,
 which have the truth disturb'd.

Exaudi, Deus. Psal. 64. 7. H.

O Lord, unto my voice give ear,
 with plaint when I do pray:
 And rid my life and soul from fear
 of foes that threat to slay.
 2 Defend me from that sort of men
 which in deceit do lurk:
 And from the frowning face of them
 that all ill feats do work.
 3 Who whet their tongues as we have men whet and sharp their swords: (seen
 They shoot abroad their arrows keen,
 I mean most bitter words.
 4 With privy sleights shoot they their
 the upright man to hit: (shaft,
 The just un'wares to strike by craft,
 they care or fear no whit.
 5 A wicked work they have decreed,
 in counsel thus they cry,
 To use deceit let us not dread,
 what? who can it espy?
 6 What way to hurt they talk and muse
 all times within their heart:
 They all consule what feats to use,
 each doth invent his part.
 7 But yet all this shall not prevail;
 when they think least upon,
 God with his dart shall sure assail
 and wound them every one.
 8 Their crafts and their ill tongues with-shall work themselves such blame, (all That they which then behold their fail,
 shall wonder at the same.
 9 Then all that see shall know right well
 that God the thing hath wrought,
 And praise his witty works, and tell
 what he to pass hath brought.
 10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce,
 still trusting in his might:
 So shall they joy with mind and voice,
 whose hearts are pure and right.
Te decet hymnus. Psal. 65. 7. H.
Thy praise alone, O Lord, doth reign
 in Sion thine own hill:

Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and their benefits fulfill.

2 For that thou dost their prayers hear,
and dost thereto agree:

3 The people all both far and near
with trust shall come to thee.

4 Our wicked life so far exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:

But Lord forgive our great misdeeds,
and purge us from our sin.

5 The man is blest who n thou dost choose
within thy courts to dwell:

Thy house and temple he shall use,
with pleasures that excell.

6 Of thy great justice hear us, God,
our health of thee doth rise:

The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea-coasts likewise.

7 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power:

Thou mak'st the mountains strong and
to stand in every shower. (it out,

8 The swelling seas thou dost assuage,
and make their streams full still:

Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.

9 The folk that dwell full far on earth
shall dread thy signs to see,

Which morn and even in great mirth
do pass with praise to thee.

10 When that the earth is chapt and dry,
and thirsteth more and more,

Then with thy drops thou dost apply,
and much increase her store.

11 The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring

The seed and corn which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.

12 With wet thou dost her furrows fill,
whereby her clods do fall:

Thy drops on her thou dost distill,
and blest her fruit withal.

13 Thou deck'st the earth of thy good with fair and pleasant crop: (grace

Thy clouds distil their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop:

14 Whereby the desert shall begin full great increase to bring:

The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.

15 In places plain the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth:

The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that man shall sing for mirth.

Fabulate Deo. Psal. 66. T. S.

YE men on earth in God rejoyce,
with praise set forth his Name:
Extol his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the same.

2 How wonderful, O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art!

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee
full sore against their heart.

3 All men that dwell the earth through-shall praise the Name of God: (out,

The laud thereof the world about
is shew'd and set abroad.

4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:

Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to pass hath brought.

5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had

On foot to pass both fair and dry,
whereof their hearts were glad.

6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:

All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controul'd.

7 Ye people give unto our God
due laud and thanks alway:

With joyful voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise:

8 Which doth endue our soul with life,
and it preserve withall:

He stays our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.

9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with
if that they will abide: (fire,

As workmen do when they desire to have their metall stri'd.

10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast,

And there with chains and fetters strong
to lie in bondage fast:

The second part.

11 Although, I say, thou suffer men
on us to ride and reign:

Though we through fire and water run,
of very grief and pain:

12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best,

And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.

13 Unto thy house resort will I
to offer and to pray,

And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay:

14 The vows that with my mouth I spake
in all my grief and smart,

The vows, I say, which I did make
in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee
of oxen fat and rams:

Yea, this my sacrifice shall be
of bullocks, goats, and lambs.

16 Come forth and hearken here full
all ye that fear the Lord: (soon,

What he for my poor soul hath done
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call to mind his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:

And thou my tongue make speed apace
to praise him by and by.

18 But if I feel my heart within
in wicked works rejoyce:

Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.

19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:

My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All praise to him that hath not put
nor cast me out of mind:

Nor yet his mercy from me shun,
which I do ever find.

Deus misericors. Psal. 67. T. H.

HAve mercy on us, Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:

To shew to us do thou accord
the brightness of thy face;

2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:

And all the nations on a row
may see thy saving health.

3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name:

O let the people all abroad
extol and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:

For thou with truth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name:

O let the people all abroad
extol and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall,

And then our God the God of peace
shall blest us eke withal.

7 God shall us blest, I say,
and then both far and near,

The folk throughout the earth alway
of him shall stand in fear.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. 68. T. S.

Let God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight:

His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.

2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and wind blows smoke away:

So in the presence of the Lord,
the wicked shall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord
shall heartily rejoyce:

They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerful in their voice.

4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:

Extol the Name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

5 The same is he that is above
within his holy place,

That father is of fatherless,
and Judge of widows case.

6 Houses he gives and issue both unto the comfortless:

He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distress.

7 When thou didst march before thy folk
th' Egyptians from among, (derness,

And brought'st them through the wil-
which was both wide and long: (down,

8 the earth did quake, the rain pour'd
heard were great claps of thunder;

The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in sunder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was wash'd:

And if so be it barren wast,
by thee it was refresh'd.

10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain,
thou hast prepar'd that place:

And for the poor thou dost provide
of thine especial grace.

The second part.

11 God will give women causes just to magnifie his Name.

When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.

12 For puissant kings for all their power,
shall flee and take the foil,
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoil.

13 And though ye were as black as pots,
your hue shall pass the dove, Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph
o're kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitful hill,
and in height others pass:
Yet Zion Gods most holy hill
doth far excel in grace.

16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Zion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions of warriors good and strong:
The Lord also in Sinai
is present them among.

18 Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on high,
and captives ledst them all,
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay;
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell
in thy temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord, for that he pours on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plain:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death, and pain.

21 Thus God will wound his enemies head,
and break the hairy scalp
Of those that in their wickedness continually do walk.

22 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep:
And all mine own, as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.

23 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my Name:
And dogs shall have their tongues em-
with licking of the same. (brew'd)

24 All men may see how thou, O God,
thine enemies dost deface:
And how thou goest as God and King
into thine holy place.

25 The fingers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsels play
with timbrel and with taber.

26 Now in the congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord:
And Jacobs whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.

27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Judah made their host,
With Zabulon and Nephthaliim,
which dwelt about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make him and sure

The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.

29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord,
For thine unto Jerusalem
sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

Yea and strange kings to us subdu'd
shall do like in those days:
I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.

30 He shall destroy the spear-mens ranks,
the calves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.

31 Then shall the lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:
The Moors most black shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. (hands)

32 Therefore ye kingdoms of the earth,
give praise unto the Lord:
Sing psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.

33 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright:
Yet by the fearful thunderclaps
men may well know his might.

34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on high,
Whose might and power doth far extend
about the cloudy sky.

35 O God, thy holiness and power
is dread for evermore:
The God of Israel gives us strength,
praised be God therefore.

Salvum me fac. Psal. 69. J. H.

SAVE me, O God, and that with speed.
The waters flow full fast:
So nigh my soul do they proceed,
that I am fore agast.

2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground:
I fall into such floods, I say,
that I am like be drown'd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and dry:
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.

4 My foes that guileless do oppress
my soul, with hate are led:
In number sure they are no less
then hairs are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad:
They do compel me to restore the things I never had.

6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou, Lord, all times canst tell:
And all the faults that I commit
to thee are known full well.

7 O God of hosts, defend and stay
all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt or shrink away
for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake
that I do bear this blame:
In spite of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sons, my brethren all
for sake me on a row:

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.
10 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
that it doth pine me much:
Their checks and taunts at thee to hear,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I do fast, my flesh to chaste,
yea, if I weep and mone:
Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they pass not thereupon.

12 If I for grief and pain of heart
in sackcloth use to walk,
Then they anon will it pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng
that sit within the gate,
They have me ever in their tongue;
of me they talk and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chief pastime
To seek which way to work me spite;
of me they sing and rhyme.

15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.

16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep:
From such as ow me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

17 Lest with the waves I should be
and depth my soul devour, (drown'd),
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hosts, to me give ear,
as thou art good and kind:
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord, have me in thy mind.

19 And do not from thy servant hide
nor turn thy face away:
I am oppress'd on every side,
in haste give ear, I say.

20 O Lord, unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose:
Because of their great tyranny,
acquitt me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame
thou know'st and thou canst tell:
For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags do break my
I seek for help anon: (heart)
But find no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruel for to think:
And gave me in my thirst withal
strong vinegar to drink.

24 Lord, turn their table to a snare
to take themselves therein:
And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
that they may nothing see:
Bowe down their backs, & do them bind,
in thraldom for to be.

26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:

Let thy displeasure in thine ire
take hold upon them all.

27 As deserts dry their house disgrace,
their offspring eke expel:

18 But none thereof possess their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.

28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay fall fore:

And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

29 Then let them heap up mischief still,
(sith they are all pervert).

That of thy favour and good will
they never have a part.

30 And raise them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of trust:

That for their names they never look
in number of the just.

The fourth part.

31 Though I, O Lord, with wo and grief
have been full foreoppressed:

Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest.

32 That I may give thy Name the praise,
and shew it with a song:

I will extol the same always with hearty thanks among.

33 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such mind thy grace hath born)

Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.

34 When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoyce them sure:

All ye that seek the Lord, behold,
your life for ay shall dure.

35 For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear
the poor when they complain:

His prisoners are to him full dear,
he doth them not disdain.

36 Wherefore the sky and earth below,
the sea, with floud and stream;

His praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that live in them.

27 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Judah's cities build:

38 Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be fill'd:

His servants seed shall keep the same
all ages out of mind:

39 And there all they that love his name dwelling place shall find.

Deus in adiutorium. Psal. 70. J. H.

O God, to me take heed,
of help I thee require:

O Lord of hosts, with haste and speed
help, help, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all
that seek my soul to spill:

Rebuke them back with blame to fall
that think and wish me ill.

3 Confound them that apply
and seek to work me shame:

And at my harm do laugh, and cry,
so, so, there goes the game.

4 But let them joyful be in thee with joy and wealth,

Which only trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.

Psal. lxx, lxxi, lxxii.

5 That they may say always
in mirth and one accord,

All glory, honour, laud and praise
be given to thee, O Lord.

6 But I am weak and poor,
come, Lord, thine aid I lack:

Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed, and be not slack.

In te, Domine. Psal. 71. J. H.

MY Lord my God, in all distress
my hope is whole in thee:

Then let no shame my soul oppress,
nor once take hold on me.

2 As thou art just, defend me, Lord,
and rid me out of dread:

Give ear, and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times resort:

Thy promise is to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.

4 Save me, my God, from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:

From folk unjust, and eke from them
that cruelly devour.

5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hosts art he:

Yea, from my youth I had a lust
still to depend on thee.

6 Thou hast me kept even from my birth,
and I through thee was born:

Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth,
both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monster, seldom seen,
much folk about me throng:

But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.

8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack thy glory and thy praise:

And eke my tongue shall not be slack
to honour thee alway.

9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I say,
when age my limbs doth take:

And when my strength doth waite away,
do not my soul forsake.

10 Among themselves my foes enquire
to take me through deceit:

And they against me do conspire,
that for my soul laid wait.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now, they said,
for God from him is gone:

Dispatch him quite, for to his aid
(I wis) there cometh none.

12 Do not absent thy self away,
O Lord, when need shall be:

But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life:

Oppress them with rebuke also,
that fain would work me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assays:

Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send:

But of thy benefits, O Lord,
I know no count nor end.

16 Yet will I go and seek forth one,
with thy good help, O God,

The saving health of thee alone
to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou took'st the care
and dost instruct me still:

Therefore thy wonders to declare
I have great mind and will.

18 And as in youth from wanton rage
thou didst me keep and stay:

Forsake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength and might may
to them that now be here:

And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a year.

20 O Lord, thy justice doth exceed thy doings all may see:

Thy works are wonderful indeed,
oh who is like to thee!

21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore,
and yet thou didst me save:

Yea, thou didst help and me restore,
and took'st me from the grave.

22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignity maintain:

Yea, thou dost make all grief to cease,
and comfort'st me again.

23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise
I will with violing:

My harp shall sound thy praise alway,
O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth will joy with pleasant
when I shall sing to thee:

And eke my soul will much rejoyce,
for thou hast made me free.

25 My tongue thy uprightness shall sound,
and speak it daily still:

For grief and shame do them confound
that seek to work me ill.

Deus, iudicium. Psal. 72. J. H.

LORD, give thy judgments to the king,
therein instruct him well:

And with his son that princely thing,
Lord, let thy justice dwell.

2 That he may govern uprightly,
and rule thy folk aright:

And so defend through equity
the poor that hath no might.

3 And let the mountains that are high unto thy folk give peace:

And eke let little hills apply,
in justice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid, and make them strong:

And eke destroy for evermore
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might:

So long as sun doth shine by day,
or else the moon by night.

6 Lord, make the king unto the just like rain to fields new mown:

And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace,

Until the moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout:
And from the floods within the land,
through all the earth about.
9 The people that in deserts dwell
shall kneel to him full thick:
And all his enemies that rebel
the earth and dust shall lick.
10 The lords of all the isles thereby great gifts to him shall bring:
The kings of Saba and Araby
give many a costly thing.

The second part

11 All kings shall seek with one accord
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world
shall serve him at his hand.
12 For he the needy sort doth save
that unto him do call:
And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.
13 He taketh pity on the poor
that are with need oppress:
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their souls to rest. (dread, 14 He shall redeem their lives from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blood that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.
15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold:
He shall be honour'd as a king,
and daily be extoll'd.
16 The mighty mountains of his land
of corn shall bear such throng,
That it like cedar-trees shall stand
in Libanus full long.
17 Their cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall pass:
In plenty it shall far exceed,
and spring as green as grass.
18 For ever they shall praise his Name,
while that the sun is light:
And think them happy through the
all folk shall bless his might. (same, 19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
to Israel's God each one:
For he doth every wonderous thing,
yea, he himself alone.
20 And blessed be his holy Name
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the same,
amen, amen, say I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psal. 73. T. S.

How ever it be, yet God is good and kind to Israel:
And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
2 Yet like a fool I almost slip,
my feet began to slide:
And ere I wist even at a pinch
my steps awry gan glide.
3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdain
That wicked men all things should have without turmoil or pain.
4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and ever in good plight:

5 And free from all adversity
when other men be shent:
And with the rest they take no part
of plague or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain:
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.
7 They are so fed that even for fat
their eyes oft-times out start:
And as for worldly goods, they have more then can with their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious,
boasting much of the wrong
Which they have done to simple men,
and ever pride among.
9 The heavens and the living Lord
they spare not to blaspheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do esteem.
10 The people of God oft-times turn to see their prosperous state: (back And almost drink the self-same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God, say they,
should know or understand These worldly things, with wicked men
be Lords of sea and land?
12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches still increase,
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.
13 Then why do I from wickedness
my fantasie refrain,
And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vain?
14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subject to all blame:
And every morning from my youth
sustain rebuke and shame?
15 And I had almost said as they,
milking mine estate:
But that I should thy children Judge
as folk unfortunate.
16 Then I bethought me how I might
this matter understand:
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand:
17 Until the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly
the end of all these men.
18 And namely, how thou settest them
upon a slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

19 Then all men muse at that strange to see how suddenly (fight,
They are destroy'd, dispatch't, consum'd,
and dead so horribly.
20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens sight
shall ebb and pass away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my mind was much oppress:
22 So fond was I and ignorant,
and in this point a beast
23 Yet nevertheless by my right hand
thou hold'st me always fast:

24 And with thy counsel dost me guide
to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish
but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing
like thee that I can love.
26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail,
but God doth fail me never:
For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for ever.
27 And lo, all such as thee forsake
thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing
saving in thee alone.
28 Therefore wilt I draw near to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.

Ut quid, Deus. Psal. 74. J. H.

Why art thou, Lord, so long from
in all this danger deep? (us Why doth thine anger kindle thus
at thine own pasture-sheep?
2 Lord, call the people to thy thought
which have been thine so long:
The which thou hast redeem'd & brought
from bondage fore and strong,
3 Have mind therefore and think upon,
remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.
5 Amid thy congregations all thine enemies roar, O God:
They set as signs on every wall
their banners plaid abroad.
6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these within thy temple now.
7 The cieling saw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swords
they beat them down at once.
8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toil
The house appointed to thy Name
they rase down to the soil.
9 And thus they say within their heart,
Dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part
Gods houses through the land.
10 Yet thou no sign of help dost send,
our prophets all are gon:
To tell when this our plague shall end
among us there is none.
11 When wilt thou, Lord, once end this and cease thine enemies strong? (thame, Shall they always blaspheme thy Name,
and rail on thee so long?
12 Why dost thou draw thy hand a back,
and hide it in thy lap?
Oh pluck it out, and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.
The second part.
13 O God, thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hast been:

Yea.

Yea, thy good grace throughout the
for our good help hath seen. (world 14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them dry:
And thou didst break the serpents head,
that he therein did die.

15 Yea, thou didst break the heads so of whales that are so fell: (great And gav'st them to the folk to eat
that in the deserts dwell.

16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to from rock both hard and high: (rise
And eke thy hand hath made likewise deep rivers to be dry.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:
Thou sett'st it to serve us with their shine,
the light and eke the sun.

18 Thou didst appoint the ends and
of all the earth about: (coasts,
Both summer-heats, and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on, O Lord, no time forget
thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy Name.

20 O let no cruel beasts devour
thy turtle that is true:
Forget not always in thy power
the poor that much do rue.

21 Regard thy covenant, and behold,
thy foes possess the land:
All sad and dark, forworn and old
our realm as now doth stand.

22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poor and needy ay
give praise unto thy Name.

23 Rise, Lord, let be by thee maintain'd
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.

24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption high
Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. 75. J. H.

Unto thee, God, will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.

2 I will uprightly judge when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
Deal not so furiously;
And unto the ungodly ones,
Set not your horns on high:

4 I said unto them, Set not up your raised horns on high;
And see that you do with stiff neck
not speak presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side,
Nor from forsaken wilderness,
promotion doth proceed.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets
another in the throne.

Psalm. lxxv, lxxvi, lxxvii.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein
himself doth pour abroad.

8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,
The wicked of the earth shall drink
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I say,
of Jacobs God therefore:

And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.

10 In sunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I:

But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and holy Ghost
all glory be therefore:

As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

In Judea. Psal. 76. J. H.

TO all that now in Jury dwell
the Lord is clearly known:
His name is great in Israel,
a people of his own.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarry there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling-place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and the sword, the spear, and shield: (bow,
And brake the ray to overthrow
in battel on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honor, Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are spoil'd through and they are fall'n on sleep: (thee
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove:
As half on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed;
what man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath? (heard

8 When thou dost make thy judgments from heaven through the ground,
Then all the earth full fore afraid
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O God, dost stand
in judgment for to speak,
To save th'afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth reign
shall turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats always.

11 Make vows and pay them to our God,
ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might
from princes great of birth:
And full of terror is his sight
to all the kings on earth.

Psalm. 77. J. H.

I With my voice to God do cry,
with heart and hearty cheer:

My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my suit doth hear.

2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:

I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stop't so fore.

4 Thou hold'st mine eyes always from that I always awake: (rest,
With fear I am so sore oppress'd,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The days of old in mind I cast,
and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past
full many years ago.

6 By night my songs I call to mind,
once made thy praise to show:
And with my heart much talk I find,
my spirits do search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast off his people thus,
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?

8 What? is his goodness clean decay'd
for ever and a day?
Or is his promise now delay'd,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold?

10 At last I said, My weakness is the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone
I gladly will record.

12 Yea, all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsel wise.

13 Thy works, O Lord, are all upright,
and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match the
of thee, O Lord our God? (might

14 Thou art a God that dost forth show
thy wonders every hour:
And so dost make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou dost defend,
with strength and stretcht d'arm,
The sons of Jacob that descend,
and Josephs seed from harm.

16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick and did rain fall plentifully: (black,
The thunder in the air did crack,
thy shafts abroad did fly.

18 Thy thunder in the air was heard,
thy lightnings from above
With flames great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.
19 Thy ways within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep:
Yer none can there thy steps espy,
nor know thy paths to keep.
20 Thou led'st thy folk upon the land
as sheep on every side:
Through Moses and through Aarons
thou didst them safely guide. (hand

Attendite populi. Psal. 78. J. H.

Attend my people to my law,
and to my words incline:
2 My mouth shall speak strange parables,
and sentences divine.
3 Which we our selves have heard and even of our fathers old; (learn'd
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.
4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race
and all his works of wonder. (praise, 5 To Jacob he commandment gave
how Israel should live, Willing our fathers should the same
unto their children give.
6 That they and their posterity
that were not sprung up tho,
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.
7 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his laws
and his precepts in love.
8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebell'g in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.
9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil:
Shooting their darts the day of war,
and yet they took the foil?
10 For why? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made,
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade:
11 But put into oblivion
his counsel and his will,
And all his works most magnifick,
which he declared still.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our forefathers
did he himself disclose
In Egypt land within the field
that call'd is Thaneos?
13 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might pass at once:
And made the waters stand as still
as deth an heap of stones.
14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink:
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew out rivers out of rocks
that were both dry and hard,
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sin they did increase:
And stirred him that is most high
to wrath in wilderness.
18 They tempted God within their hearts,
like people of mistrust;
Requiring such a kind of meat
as served to their lust:
19 Saying with murmuration
in their unfaithfulness,
What? can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?
20 Behold, he strake the stony rock,
and floods forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk
both bread and flesh also?
21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succour them
in their necessity.
23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in sunder:
24 And rain'd down Manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eat 25 When earthly men with angels food
were fed at their request, 26 He bade the east-wind blow away,
and brought in the south-west.
27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowl as thick as sand:
28 Which he did cast amid the place
where all their tents did stand.
29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fills:
Yet more and more they did desire
to serve their lusts and wills.
30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
his wrath upon them fell,
31 And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choice of Israel.
32 Yer fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
33 Their days therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:
Their years did waste and pass away
with terror and with pain.
34 But ever when we plagued them,
they sought him by and by,
35 Remembering that he was their their help, & God most high. (strength, 36 Though in their mouths they did but
and flatter with the Lord: (glose
And with their tongues & in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth part.

37 For why, their hearts were nothing
to him nor to his trade: (bent Nor yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.

38 Yet was he still so merciful,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.
Yea, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a wind
That passeth away, and cannot well
return by his own kind.
40 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke!
How did they move and stir the Lord
to plague them with his stroke!
41 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted God efr'oon, Prescribing to the holy Lord
what things they would have done.
42 Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands
of the fierce enemy.
43 Nor how he wrought his miracles
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.
44 Nor how he turned by his power
their waters into blood:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.
45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them fore annoy:
And fill'd their country full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper.
47 With bailstones he destroy'd their
so that they were all lost: (vines,
And not so much as wild fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.
48 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattel smote,
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunder-bolts full hot.
49 He cast upon them in his ire
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.
50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.
51 He strake also the first-born all that up in Egypt came:
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.
52 But as for all his own dear folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.
53 VVithout all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
VVhereas their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.
54 And brought them out into the coasts
of his own holy land, Even

Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm, and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high they stir'd and tempt'd still,
And would nor keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray,
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

58 And griev'd him with their hill-altars,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his breast:
The naughtiness of Israel
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsook the tabernacle
of Silo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men,
even as his dwelling-place.
61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand,
And gave the honour of his ark
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
wrath with his heritage:
63 Their young men were devour'd with maids had no marriage. (fire, 64 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one:
And not a widow left alive
their death for to bemoane.

65 And then the Lord began to wake
like one that slept a time,
And like a valiant man of war
refreshed after wine.
66 With emerods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetual.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse:
68 But chose the tribe of Jehuda,
whereas he thought to dwell:
Even the noble mount Sion,
which he did love so well.

69 Whereas he did his temple build
both sumptuously and sure,
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.
70 Then chose he David him to serve,
his people for to keep;
Whom he took up and brought away
even from the folds of sheep.

71 As he did follow th' ewes with young,
the Lord did him advance
To feed his people Israel
and his inheritance.

72 Thus David with a faithful heart
his flock and charge did feed,
And prudently with all his power
did govern them indeed.

O God, the Gentiles do invade
thine heritage to spoil:
Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy temple they defile.

2 The bodies of thy saints most dear
abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of them that do thee fear,
the beast devour and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem
as water spilt they have:
So that there is not one of them
to lay their dead in grave.

4 Thus are we made a laughing-stock
almost the world throughout:
The enemies at us jest and mock
which dwell our coasts about.

5 Wilt thou, O Lord, thus in thine ire
against us ever fume,
And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume?

6 Upon those people pour the same,
which did thee never know:
All realms which call not on thy Name,
consume and overthrow.

7 For they have got the upper hand,
and Jacobs seed destroy'd:
His habitation and his land
they have left waste and void.

8 Bear not in mind our former faults,
with speed some pity show:
And aid us, Lord, in all assaults,
for we are weak and low.

The second part.

9 O God that giv'st all health and grace,
on us declare the same:
Weigh not our works, our sins deface,
for honour of thy name.

Why shall the wicked still away,
to us as people dumb,
In thy reproach rejoyce, and say,
Where is their God become?

Require, O Lord, as thou see'st good,
before our eyes in fight,
Of all these folk thy servants blood
which they spilt in despite.

11 Receive into thy fight in haste
the clamours, grief, and wrong
Of such as are in prison cast,
sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord, set them out of band
Which unto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.

12 The nations which have been so bold
as to blaspheme thy Name,
Into their laps with seven-fold
repay again the same.

13 So we thy flock and pasture-sheep
will praise thee evermore,
And teach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. 80. J. H.

Thou Herd that Israel dost keep,
give ear and take good heed:
Which leadest Joseph like a sheep,
and dost him watch and feed.

2 Thou Lord, I say, whose seat is set on cherubims most bright,

Shew forth thy self and do not let
send down thy beams of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise,
To shew thy power do thou begin;
come help us, Lord, arise.

4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
convert us, Lord, to thee:
Shew us the brightness of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
how long wilt thou (I say) Against thy folk in anger swell,
and wilt not hear them pray?

6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows
their bread with tears they eat, (deep,
And drink the tears that they do weep,
in measure full and great.

7 Thou hast us made a very strife
to those that dwell about:
And that our foes do love alive,
they laugh and jest it out.

8 Take us, Lord, unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyful face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well
thou brought'st a vine full dear:
The heathen folk thou didst expel,
and thou didst plant it there.

10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast:
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were covered round about with shade that from it came,
And eke the cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same.

12 Why then didst thou her walls destroy?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
That all the folk that pass thereby thy vine may spoil and waste.

13 The boar out of the wood so wild
dost dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.

14 O Lord of hosts, return again,
from heaven look betime:
Behold, and with thy help sustain
this poor vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord, do not forget.

16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now
whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the son of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.

18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy name.

19 O Lord of hosts, through thy good convert us unto thee: (grace
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Discreet. Psal. 81. 7. H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoyce,
which is our strength and stay:
Be joyfull and lift up your voice
to Jacobs God, I say.

2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
Some joyfull psalm to sing:
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new moon,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done
at any solemn feast.

4 For this is unto Israel
a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed
when he from Egypt came,
That as a witness all his seed
should still observe the same.

6 When God, I say, had so prepar'd
to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.

7 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burden clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free
from burning brick of clay.

8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I help thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea, as the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodness of the Lord
with muttering thou didst move.

10 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no god in thee reserve
of any land abroad:

Nor in no wise to bowe or serve
a strange or forreign god.

12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake:
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardness of their heart:
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard
to walk within my way!

16 How soon would I confound their foes,
and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all those
that would them overthrow!

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him still:
But of his folk the time and age
should flourish ever still.

18 I would have fed them with the crop
and finest of the wheat:
And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their hills should eat.

Deus fletit. Psal. 82. 7. H.

AMid the preals with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with judges of the land.

2 How long said he, will you proceed
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed
the wicked to regard?

3 Whereas of due you should defend
the fatherless and weak,
And when the poor man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.

4 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poor men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk:

They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.

6 For lo, even now the time is come
that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some
for gain are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight
as gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might
for love I did you call.

7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
For aunts, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

8 Up Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine own
to take them as thy right.

Deus, quid. Psal. 83. 7. H.

DO not, O God, refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:

Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay

2 For why? behold thy foes, and see how they do rage and cry:
And those that bear an hate to thee
hold up their heads on high.

3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counsel doth conspire.

4 Come on, say they, let us expel
and pluck these folk away:
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their heart
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ismaelites also:
The Hagarenes and Moabites,
with divers other mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:

The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Assurance is well appaid
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lots posteritie.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them, Lord, each one:
As to Sifer, and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open light.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their lords appear like Zeb and Reb than:
As Zebah and Zalmana were,
the kings of Midian.

12 Which said, Let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad, Possess and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.

13 Turn them, O God, with storms as fast
as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff which men do cast
with winds to flie away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume
the mighty forrests spills;
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills:

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy wind and shewre,
Lord, make them all afraid.

16 Lord, bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie
to perish eke withall.

18 That they may know and feel full well
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excell,
and reign throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Psal. 84. J. H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts, to me!
The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant (Lord) they be!

2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrows find a room to rest
and save themselves from wrong,
And eke the swallow hath a nest
wherein to keep her young.

4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hosts, thou art, I say,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house always:
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.

6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:

Which to thy house do mind the way,
and see it in their heart.

As they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still;
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill.
7 From strength to strength they walk full no faintness there shall be: (fast,
And so the God of gods at last
in Sion they do see.
8 O Lord of hosts, to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray:
And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.
9 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace regard, and so draw near:
Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

10 For why? within thy courts one day
is better to abide,
Then other where to keep or stay
a thousand days beside.
Much rather would I keep a door
within the house of God,
Then in the tents of wickedness
to settle mine abode.
11 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give:
And no good thing will he withhold
from them that purely live.
12 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest
and happy sure is he,
That is perswaded in his breast
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti. Psal. 85. 7. H.

Thou hast been merciful indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land:
For thou restoredst Jacobs seed
from thralldom out of band.
2 The wicked ways that they were in,
thou didst them clean remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coveredst it.
3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.
4 O God our health, do now convert thy people unto thee:
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.
5 Why, shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?
6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore and quicken us, that we
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee?
7 O Lord, on us do thou declare
thy goodness to our wealth:
Shew forth to us, and do not spare,
thine aid and saving health.
8 I will heark what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishness.

9 For why? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear:
Whereby great glory in our land
shall dwell and flourish there.
10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place:

And peace shall justice with his greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly:
So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.
12 Yea, God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.
13 Before his face shall justice go much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

Inclina, Domine. Psal. 86. 7. H.

Lord, bowe thine ear to my request,
and hear me by and by:
With grievous pain and grief oppress,
full poor and weak am I.
2 Preserve my soul, because my ways
and doings holy be:
And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.
3 Thy mercy, Lord, on me express,
defend me eke withal:
For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call.
4 Comfort, O Lord, thy servants soul
that now with pain is pin'd:
For unto thee, I ord, I extol
and lift my soul and mind.
5 For thou art good and bountiful,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentiful
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord, likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear:
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.
7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain:
For why? I know and well do prove thou answerest me again.
8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none
with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall
and glorify thy Name.
10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:
Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.
11 O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O joyn my heart to thee so nigh
that I thy name may dread.
12 To thee my God will I give praise
with all my heart, O Lord:
And glorify thy Name a ways
for ever through the world.
13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me
is great, and doth excel:
Thou sett'st my soul at liberty
out from the lower hell.
14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:

They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.

15 Thou, Lord, art merciful and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.
16 O turn to me, and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids for am I.
17 On me some sign of favour shew,
that all my foes may see:
And be assur'd, because, Lord, thou
dost help and comfort me.

Fundamenta. Psal. 87. 7. H.

That city shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay:
Upon the holy hills full sure,
it can no time decay.
2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more then all the rest
of Jacobs tents beside.
3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion, and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou city of our God.
4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the same:
And Babylon shall eke apply
and learn to know my Name.
5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also with Ethiop likewise,
A people old, full long ago
were born, and there did rise.
6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.
7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear,
Of Sion, that the chief of all
had his beginning there.
8 The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plenty be:
My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compass all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. 88. 7. H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay,
thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day
and all the night to thee.
2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high:
Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend
and hearken to my cry.
3 For why? with woe my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.
4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.
5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain:
It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain:
6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot:

The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

- 7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.
- 8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me doth lie:
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and try.
- 9 Thou put'st my friends far off from me,
and mak'st them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.
- 10 My light doth fail through grief & wo,
I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

- 11 Dost thou unto the dead declare
thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?
- 12 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preached in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroy'd
thy truth her honour have?
- 13 Shall they that lie in dark full low
of all thy wonders wor?
Or there shall they thy justice know where all things are forgot?
- 14 But I, O Lord, to thee always do cry and call apace:
My prayer eke ere it be day
shall come before thy face.
- 15 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my soul,
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?
- 16 I am afflict, as dying still
from youth this many a year:
The terrors which do vex me ill
with troubled mind I bear.
- 17 The furies of thy wrathful rage
full sore upon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not assuage,
but me oppress withal.
- 18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:
And all at once with streams full stout
beset me on each side.
- 19 Thou sett'st far from me my friends
and lovers every one:
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

Misericordias. Psal. 89. J. H.

- TO sing the mercies of the Lord
my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.
- 2 For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore remain:
In that thou dost the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.
 - 3 To mine elect, faith God, I made a covenant and behest:
My servant David to persuade,
I swore and did protest:
 - 4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:

And still uphold thy throne alway
from age to age to last.

- 5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord:
Thy saints within thy church on earth
thy faith and truth record.
- 6 Who with the Lord is equal then
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sons of all the gods,
what one is like our God?
- 7 God in assembly of the saints
is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about
in terror to be had.
- 8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world
what one is like to thee?
On every side, most mighty kord,
thy truth is seen to be.
- 9 The raging sea by thine advice thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calm and still.
- 10 And Egypt, Lord, thou hast subdu'd,
and thou hast it destroy'd:
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm
hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

- 11 The heavens are thine and still have likewise the earth and land: (been,
The world and all that is therein
thou foundedst with thy hand.
- 12 Both north and south, with east and thy self didst make and frame: (west,
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy Name.
- 13 Thine arm is strong and full of power:
all might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each hour
thou litest up on high.
- 14 In righteousness and equity
thou hast thy seat and place:
Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.
- 15 That folk is blest that knows aright
thy present power, O God:
For in the favour of thy fight
they walk full safe abroad.
- 16 For in thy Name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoyce:
And through thy righteousness have a pleasant fame and noise: (they
- 17 For why? their glory, strength, and in thee alone doth lie: (aid Thy goodness eke that hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high.
- 18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring:
The holy one of Israel
he is our guide and King.
- 19 Some times thy will unto thy saints
in visions thou didst show:
And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy mind to make them know:
- 20 A man of might I have erect,
your king and guide to be:
And set him up whom I elect
among the folk to me.

The third part.

- 21 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out:

And with mine holy oyl anoint
him king of all the rout.

- 22 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain:
And with mine arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.
- 23 The enemies shall not him oppress,
they shall him not devour:
Ne yet the sons of wickedness
on him shall have no power:
- 24 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in fight:
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.
- 25 My truth and mercy eke withal
shall still upon him lie:
And in my Name his horn eke shall
be lifted up on high:
- 26 His kingdom I will set to be
upon the sea and land:
And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
- 27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say,
My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.
- 28 As my first-born I will him take
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will make above all earthly kings.
- 29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as my I self have told:
My faithful covenant to fulfil
my mercy I will hold.
- 30 And eke his seed I will sustain
for ever strong and sure:
So that his fear shall still remain
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth part.

- 31 If that his sons forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve:
And of my judgments have none aw,
nor will not them observe:
- 32 Or if they do not use aright
my statutes to them made,
And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade:
- 33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend:
And so with scourging for their sin,
if that they do offend.
- 34 My mercy yet and my goodness
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with craftiness,
and so my truth forgo.
- 35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:
No word the which my lips have told
shall alter or be broke.
- 36 Once sworn I by my holiness,
and that perform will I:
With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lie.
- 37 His seed for evermore shall reign,
and eke his throne of might:
As doth the sun, it shall remain
for ever in my sight.
- 38 And as the moon within the sky
for ever standeth fast
A faithful witness from on high,
so shall his kingdom last.

39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject,
and now thou changeſt cheer:
Yea, thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed dear.
40 The covenant with thy ſervant made,
Lord, thou haſt quite undone:
And down upon the ground alſo
haſt caſt his royal crown.

The fifth part.

41 Thou pluck'ſt his hedges up with his walls thou doſt confound: (might,
Thou beateſt eke his bulwarks down,
and break'ſt them to the ground.
42 That he is fore deſtroy'd and torn
of comers by throughout:
And ſo is made a mock and ſcorn
to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand haſt lifted up,
that him ſo fore annoy:
And all his foes that him devour,
lo, thou haſt made to joy.
44 His ſwords edge thou doſt take away,
that ſhould his foes withſtand:
To him in war no victory
thou giv'ſt, nor upper hand.
45 His glory thou doſt alſo waſte,
his throne, his joy, his mirth
By thee is overthrow'n, and caſt
full low upon the earth.
46 Thou haſt cut off and made full ſhort
his youth and luſty days:
And raiſ'd of him an ill report
with ſhame and great diſpraiſe.
47 How long away from me, O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turn?
And ſhall thine anger ſtill alway
as fire conſume and burn?
48 O call to mind, remember then,
my time conſumeth faſt:
Why haſt thou made the ſons of men
as things in vain to waſte?

49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death ſhall never ſee?
Or from the hand of hell his ſoul
ſhall be deliver free?
50 Where is, O Lord, thine own goodneſs
to oft declar'd beforen,
Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou haſt ſworn?

51 The great rebukes to mind I call
that on thy ſervants lie:
The railings of the people all
born in my breaſt have I, 52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blaſphemed have thy Name:
The ſteps of thine anointed one
they ceaſe not to deſame.

53 All praiſe to thee, O Lord of hoſts,
both now and eke for ay:
Through ſky and earth and all the coaſts
amen, amen, I ſay.

Domine, refugium. Pſal. 90. 7. H.

THOU, Lord, haſt been our ſure de-
our place of eaſe and reſt (ſence,
In all times paſt, yea ſo long ſince
as cannot be expreſt.

2 Ere there was made mountain or hill
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and always ſtill
for ever thou art God.

Pſal. xc, xci, xcii

3 Thou grindeſt man through grief and to duſt or clay; and then, (pain
And then thou ſay'ſt again, Return
again ye ſons of men.

4 The laſting of a thouſand years,
what is it in thy ſight?
's yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.

5 So ſoon as thou doſt ſcatter them,
then is their life and trade
All as a ſleep, and like the graſs
whoſe beauty ſoon doth fade:

6 Which in the morning ſhines full bright
but fadeth by and by:
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead, and dry.

7 For through thine anger we conſume,
our might is much decay'd:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full fore afraid.

8 The wicked works that we have thou ſett'ſt before thine eye: (wrought
Our privy faults, yea, eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth ſpy.

9 For through thy wrath our days do thereof doth nought remain: waſte,
Our years conſume as words or blaſts,
and are not call'd again.

10 Our time is threſcore years and ten
that we do live on mold:
If one ſee fourſcore, ſurely then
we count him wondrous old.

The ſecond part.

11 Yet of this time the ſtrength and the which we count upon, (chief Is nothing elſe but painful grief,
and we as blaſts are gone.

12 Who once doth know what ſtrength is what might thine anger hath? (there,
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath?

13 Inſtruct us, Lord, to know and try
how long our days remain:
That then we may our hearts apply
true wiſdom to attain.

14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy ſervants now,
and help them at their need.

15 Reſreſh us with thy mercy ſoon,
and then our joy ſhall be
All times ſo long as life doth laſt,
in heart rejoyce will we.

16 As thou haſt plagued us before,
now alſo make us glad:
And for the years wherein full fore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and power appear,
and on thy ſervants light:
And ſhew unto thy children dear
thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord, let thy grace and glory ſtand
on us thy ſervants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord, proſper them to us.

Qui habitat Pſal. 91. 7. H.

HE that within the ſecret place
of God moſt high doth dwell:
In ſhadow of the mightieſt grace
at reſt ſhall keep him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my ſtrong hold
I to the Lord will ſay,
My God is he, in him will I
my whole affiance ſtay.

3 He ſhall defend thee from the ſnare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care
whereof thou art afraid:

4 And with his wings ſhall cover thee
and keep thee ſafely there:
His faith and truth thy fence ſhall be,
as ſure as ſhield and ſpear.

5 So that thou ſhalt not need, I ſay,
to fear or be affright:
Of all the ſhafts that fly by day,
nor terrors of the night:

6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark ſo faſt:
Nor yet of that which doth deſtroy
and at noon-day doth waſte.

7 Yea, at thy ſide as thou doſt ſtand
a thouſand dead ſhall be:
Ten thouſand eke at thy right hand,
and yet ſhalt thou be free.

8 But thou ſhalt ſee it for thy part,
thine eyes ſhall well regard,
That even like to their deſert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only luſt
to ſtay my hope on thee:
And in the high'ſt I put my truſt,
my ſure defence is he.

10 Thou ſhalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it ſhall not mell:
Nor yet the plague ſhall once come near
the houſe where thou doſt dwell.

11 For why? unto his angels all
with charge commanded he,
That ſtill in all thy wayes they ſhall
preſerve and proſper thee:

12 And in their hands ſhall bear thee up,
ſtill waiting thee upon:
So that thy foot ſhall never chance
to ſpurn at any ſtone.

13 Upon the lions thou ſhalt go,
the adder ſell and long:
And tread upon the lions young,
with dragons ſtout and ſtrong.

14 For he that truſteth unto me,
I will diſpatch him quite:
And him defend, becauſe that he doth know my name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

16 With length of years and days of
I will fulfil his time: (wealth
The goodneſs of my ſaving health
I will declare to him.

Bonum eſt. Pſal. 92. J. H.

IT is a thing both good and meet
to praiſe the higheſt Lord:
And to thy Name, O thou moſt High,
to ſing with one accord:

2 To ſhew the kindneſs of the Lord,
betime ere day be light?
And eke declare his truth abroad
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on lute and harp ſo ſweet:

With all the mirth you can invent
of instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice
thy handy-works to see.

5 O Lord, how glorious and how great
are all thy works so stout!
So deeply are thy counsels set
that none can try them out.

6 The man unwise hath not the wit
this gear to pass to bring:
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will
as grass do spring full fast,
they when they flourish in their ill
for ever shall be waste.
8 But thou art mighty, Lord most high,
yea thou dost reign therefore
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.

9 For why? O Lord, behold and see,
behold thy foes, I say,
How all that work iniquity
shall perish and decay.
10 But thou, like as an unicorn,
shalt lift mine horn on high:
With strength and new prepared oyl
thine ointed king am I:

11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.

12 The just shall flourish up on high
as date-trees bud and blow:
And as the cedars multiply
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shall both far and well be seen: (bring
And pleasantly both bud and spring
with boughs and branches green.

15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will:
He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. 93. J. H.

The Lord as king aloft doth reign,
with glory goodly dight:
And he to shew his strength and main,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made
and shaped it so sure,
No might can make it move or fade;
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or thy fear was set before: (wrought, Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast been evermore.

4 The floods, O Lord, the floods derise:
they roar and make a noise:
The floods (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea, though the storms arise in fight,
though seas do rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

Psal. xciii, xciv, xcvi.

6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend:
For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

Dona ultimum. Psal. 94. J. H.

O Lord, thou dost revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:

Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth doth judge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men bear sway
with lifting up their voice?

How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoyce?

4 How long shall they with brags burst and proudly prate their fill? (out Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage
thy spoil and vex full sore:
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherless,
and none doth put them by.

7 And when they take these things in thistalk they have of thee, (hand,
Can Jacobs God this understand?
tush no, he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise and people rude,
some knowledge now discern:
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.

9 The Lord which made the ear of man,
he needs of right must hear:
He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect!
how can ye scape his hand?

The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he seeth full plain; (man,
The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth scan,
and sinderh them but vain.

12 But, Lord, that man is happy sure whom thou dost keep in aw,
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit:
When wicked men shall be suppress,
and fall into the pit.

14 For sure the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did choose
he will no time forsake.

15 Until that judgment be decreed
to justice to convert:
That all may follow her with speed
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand against the cursed train?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repel:

My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say, My foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:

Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide
to stay me up withal.

19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort find:
Then Lord thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my mind.

20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self, and draw
with wicked men to fit:
Which with pretence instead of law
much mischief do commit?

21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good:

And in their counsels they are rife
to shed the guiltless blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence, or lock:
He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus. Psal. 95. J. H.

Come let us lift up our voice
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoyce
let us with one accord.

2 Yea, let us come before his face
to give him thanks and praise:
In singing psalms unto his grace
let us be glad always.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God,
A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deep,
and corners of the land,
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought:

The earth and all that therein is his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let us bowe and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall:
And kneel to him with one accord
the which hath made us all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed;
his sheep, and he our Guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart:
As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.

10 Twice twenty years they did me
and I to them did say, (grieve,
They err in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherefore I sware when that my was kindled in my breast, (wra'h E. 3.) have

That they should never tread the path
to enter in myrest.

Cantate Domino. Psal. 96. J. H.

Sing ye with praise unto the Lord
new songs with joy and mirth :
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
2 Yea, sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy Name :
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.
3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about :
To shew his wonders do not spare
in all the world throughout.
4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway :
And he is to be dread of right
above all gods, I say.
5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade :
But yet our God he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.
6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for ay before his face :
Both power and might likewise excel
within his holy place.
7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke, I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.
8 Ascribe unto the Lord also the glory of his Name :
And eke into his courts do go
with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his temple bright :
Let all the people of the world
be fearful at his sight.
10 Tell all the world, Be not agast,
the Lord doth reign above :
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move :
11 And that it is the Lord alone
that rules with princely might,
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.
12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoyce :
The sea with all that is therein
shall shout and make a noise.
13 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth :
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth, 14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might :
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. 97. J. H.

The Lord doth reign, whereat the may joy with pleasant voice : (earth
And eke the illes with joyful mirth
may triumph and rejoyce.
2 Both clouds and darkness eke do swell,
and round about him beat :
Yea, right and justice ever dwell
and bide about his seat.

Psal. XCVI, XCVII, XCVIII, XCIX. C.

3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face :
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.
4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze
and to the world appear :
Whereat the earth did look and gaze
with dread and deadly fear.
5 The hills like wax did melt in fight
and presence of the Lord :
They fled before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.
6 The heavens eke declare and show
his justice forth abroad,
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.
7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain :
And eke to those that glory much
dumb pictures to maintain.
8 For all the idols of the world,
which they as gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.
9 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall rejoyce :
For at thy judgments they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.
10 That thou, O Lord, art set on high
in all the earth abroad :
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.
11 All ye that love the Lord do this,
hate all things that are ill :
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.
12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part :
Great joy with gladness, mirth and lust,
to them of upright heart.
13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holiness proclaim :
Be thankful eke with heart and voice,
and mindful of the same.

Cantate Domino. Psal. 98. J. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord
a new and pleasant song :
For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong. (world 2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour,
And get himself the victory
with his own arm and power.
3 The Lord doth make the people know
his saving health and might :
The Lord doth eke his justice show
in all the heathens sight.
4 His grace and truth to Israel
in mind he doth record :
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.
5 Be glad in him with joyful voice,
all people of the earth :
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoyce
to him with joy and mirth.
6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with psalms :
Rejoyce before the Lord our King
with trumpets and with shalms.
7 Yea, let the sea with all therein
for joy both rore and swell :

The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
8 And let the floods rejoyce their fill,
and clap their hands apace :
And eke the mountains and the hills,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and every wight :
And rule the people mightily
with justice and with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. 99. J. H.

The Lord doth reign, although at it
the people rage full fore :
Yea, he on cherubims doth sit,
though all the world do rore.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell
is high and wondrous great :
Above all folk he doth excel,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty name,
for it is fearful sure :
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our king
doth love judgment and right :
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob, through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him do :
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.

6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel
as priests on him did call :
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gave them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them until.

8 O Lord our God, thou didst them hear,
and answeredst them again :
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.

9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill :
For why? our God throughout the world
is holy ever still.

Jubilate Deo Psal. 100. J. H.

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice :
2 Him serve with fear, his praise forth
come ye before him and rejoyce. (tell :
3 The Lord ye know is God indeed,
without our aid he did us make :
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto :
Praise laud, and bless his Name always;
for it is seemly so to do.
5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure :
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same, by J. H.

IN God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth :
2 Serve him, and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.

3 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep,
Not we our selves: for we are his own flock and pasture-shap.
4 O go into his gates always,
give thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.
5 For why? the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign:
From age to age throughout the world
his truth doth still remain.

Misererere. Psal. 101. N.

I Mercy will and judgment sing,
O Lord God, unto thee:
2 And wisely do in perfect way,
until thou come to me:
And in the midst of my house walk
in pureness of my spirit:
3 And I no kind of wicked thing
will set before my sight.
I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:
4 From me shall part the froward heart,
none evil I see.
5 Him will I shrow, that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.
6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within
the land that faithful be:
In perfect way who walketh, shall be servant unto me.
7 I will no guileful person have
within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.
8 Betimes I will destroy even all
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods city cut
the wicked workers hand.

Domine, exaudi. Psal. 102. N.

O Hear my prayer, Lord, and let
my cry come unto thee:
2 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my days consume and fall.
4 And as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead,
And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my groaning voice
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As pelican in wilderness:
such case now am I in.
And as an owl in desert is,
lo, I am such an one:
7 I watch, and as a sparrow on the house-top am alone.
8 Lo daily in reprochful wise
mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.
9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have fill'd:
And mingled have my drink with tears,
that from mine eyes have fall'd.

10 Because of thy displeasure, Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.
11 The days wherein I pass my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grass
that soon away doth fade.
12 But thou, O Lord, for ever dost
remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth
abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercy, now the time
forget is come to end.
14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their spirit.
15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy Name:
And all the kings on earth shall dread
thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.
17 To prayer of the desolate
when he himself shall bend:
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.
18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lords renown shall spread.
19 For he from his high sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.
20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to die.
21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same:
22 Then when the people of the land
and kingdoms with accord
shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
And shorter he did cut my days,
thus I therefore did say, 24 My God, in midst of all my days
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally,
from age to age for ay.
25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And Lord, the heavens are the work
which thine own hands have made.
26 Yea, they shall perish and decay,
but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in time wax old
even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change,
and changed shall they be:
But thou dost still abide the same,
thy years do never flee.
28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy light their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

Benedic anima. Psal. 103. T. S.

MY soul, give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secreters of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.
2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
shew not thy self unkind:
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy mind.
3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.
5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age renew'th.
6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be oppress'd:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.
7 His ways and his commandments
to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.
8 The Lord is kind and merciful
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.
9 He chides not us continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.
10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth us not reward.
11 But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.
12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all,
As far as is the sun-rising
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And look what pity parents dear
unto their children bear:
Like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear.
14 The Lord that made us knows our our mould and fashion just: (shape, How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we be but dust.
15 And how the time of mortal men
is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away:

10 Whose gloss and beauty stormy winds
do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assaults
such blossoms have no place.
17 But yet the goodness of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children do receive
his righteousness at hand.
18 I mean, which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.
19 The heavens high are made the seat
and footstool of the Lord:
And by his power imperial
he governs all the world.
20 Ye angels which are great in power,
praise ye and bless the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will immediately accord.
21 Ye noble hosts and ministers,
cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.
22 Yea, all his works in every place,
praise ye his holy Name:
My heart, my mind, and eke my soul,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic, anima mea. Psal. 104. W. K.

MY soul, praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name,
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear;
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame?
Honour and Majesty
in thee shine most clear.
2 With light, as a robe,
thou hast thee beclad,
Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see:
The heavens in such sort
thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.
3 His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots,
are made him to bear:
And there with much swiftness
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.
4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.
5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.
6 The deep a fair covering
for it made thou hast:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.
7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:

And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearful they be,
That in their great raging
they haste soon away.
8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend:
If thou do but speak,
thy word they fulfil.
So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend.
Where thou them appointest remain they do still.
9 Their bounds thou hast set
how far they shall run;
So that in their rage
not that pass they can:
For God hath appointed
they shall not return.
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills:
11 Where both the wild asses
their thirst oft-times slake,
And beasts of the mountains
thereof drink their fill.
12 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the air
abide shall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there,
Among the green branches
their songs shall excel.
13 The mountains to moist
the clouds he doth use:
The earth with his works
is wholly replete.
14 So as the brute cattel
he doth not refuse:
But grass doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.
15 Yea, bread, wine, and oyl,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long:
17 In these may birds build
and make there their nests:
In fir-trees the storks remain and abide.
18 The high hills are succours
for wild goats to rest:
And eke the rock stony
for conies to hide.
19 The moon then is set
her seasons to run:
The days from the nights
thereby to discern.
And by the descending
also of the sun,
The cold from heat away
thereby we do learn.

20 When darkness doth come
by Gods will and power,
Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood.
21 The lions range roaring
their prey to devour:
But yet it is thou, Lord,
which givest them food.
22 As soon as the sun
is up, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full fain:
23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him
to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How sundry, O Lord,
are all thy works found!
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound:
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thought.
25 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad,
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.
26 There both mighty ships sail,
and some leat rode:
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.
27 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.
28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give,
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.
Thou openest thy hand,
and they find such grace,
That they which good things
are filled we see.
29 But sore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.
30 Again, when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodness
the dry earth renew.
31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.
32 His look can the earth make
to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountains
to smoke at his voice.
33 To this Lord and God
sing will I always:
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.
34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please:

I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire;
And eke the perverse
them root out with shame
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithful,
praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. 105. N.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name:
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.
2 Sing ye unto the Lord, I say,
and sing unto him praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought always.
3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoyce with one accord:
And let the heart also rejoyce
of them that seek the Lord.
4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might:
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.
5 The wondrous works which he hath keep still in mindful heart: (done)
Ne let the judgments of his mouth
out of your mind depart:
6 Ye that of faithful Abraham
his servant are the seed:
Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.
7 For he, he only is, I say,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his most rightful judgments are through all the earth abroad.
8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made
with Abraham long ago,
And faithful oath which he hath sworn
to Isaac also:
10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey;
And for eternal covenant
to Israel for ay.
11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.
12 Although the number at that time
did very small appear:
Yea, very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were.
13 While yet they walkt from land to land
without a sure abode:
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.
14 And wrong at no oppressors hands
he suffered them to take:
But even the great and mighty kings
reproved for their sake.
15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:

Ne do the prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he stroy'd the store:
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before:

The third part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold to live a slave in we:
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
the irons pierc'd also.
18 Until the time came when his cause
was known apparently,
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultless truth did try.
19 The king sent and delivered him
from prison where he was:
20 The ruler of the people then
did freely let him pass.
21 And over all his house he made him lord to bear the sway:
And of his substance made him have
the rule and all the stay.
22 That he might to his will instruct
the princes of the land:
And wisdoms lore his ancient men
might cause to understand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.
24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow:
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whole heart he turn'd, that they with his people did entreat: (hate)
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithful servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous message of his signs
among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.
28 Darknes he sent, and made it dark
in stead of brighter day:
And unto his commission
they did not disobey.
29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fishes slay:
30 Their land brought frogseven in the
where their king Pharaoh lay. (place) 31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies:
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and stony hail
in stead of milder rain:
And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.
33 He smote their vines, and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow:
And all the trees within their coasts
down did he overthrow.
34 He spake, then caterpillers did
and grasshoppers abound:

35 Which ate the grass in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

36 The first begotten in their land
eke deadly did he smite:
Yea, the beginning and first fruit
of all their strength and might.
37 With gold and silver he them brought:
from Egypt land to pass:
And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.
38 Egypt was glad and joyful then
when they did thence depart:
For terror and the fear of them
was fall'n upon their heart.
39 To shroud them from the parching
a cloud he did display: (heat)
And fire he sent to give them light
when night had hid the day.
40 They asked, and he caused quails
to rain at their request:
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he repress.
41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out:
And eke the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.
42 For of his holy covenant
ay mindful was he tho:
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago.
43 He brought his people forth with
and his elect with joy (mirth),
Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd in great annoy.
44 And of the heathen men he gave
to them the fruitful lands:
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore,
And faithfully obey his laws:
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 106. N.

Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for ay:
2 Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display?
3 They blessed are that judgment keep,
and justly do alway.
4 With favour of thy people, Lord,
remember me, I pray:
And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafeto visit me?
5 That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see:
And with thy people's joy I may
a joyful mind possess;
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart express.
6 Both we and eke our fathers all have sinned every one:
We have committed wickedness,
and lewdly we have done.
7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
hast done in Egypt land,
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.
Nor they thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankful mind:

But at the sea, yea the Red sea,
rebell'd most unkind.

8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name;
That he might make his power known,
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The Red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dri'd:

And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.

10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despiteful foe,
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd,
not one was left alive:

12 Then they believ'd his word, & praise
in song they did him give.

13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgot:
And for his counsel and his will
they did neglect to wait:

14 But lusted in the wilderness
with fond and greedy lust;
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton minds desire
he suffered them to have:
But wasting leanness therewithal
into their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch:

Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envy much.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour:
And all Abirams company
did cover in that hour.

18 In their assembly kindled was
the hot consuming fire:
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol-calf did frame:
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likeness of a calf
which feedeth on the grass—
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their onely Saviour
unkindly they forgot;
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done,
And by the Red sea dreadful things
performed long agoe.

23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetful and unkind,
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his mind:

Had not his chosen Moses stood
before him in the break,
To turn his wrath, lest he on them
with slaughter should him wreak.

24 They did despite the pleasant land
that he beight to give:

Yea, and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd,

Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning mind.

26 Therefore against them lifted he his strong revenging hand,
Them to destroy in wilderness
ere they should see the land:

27 And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod,
And through the countreys of the world
to scatter them abroad.

28 To Baal-peor then they did adjoyn themselves also,
And ate the off'rings of the dead;
so they forlook him tho.

29 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
And in his fore enkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.

30 But Phinehas stood up with zeal
the sinners vile to slay:
And judgment he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth so counted is
from race to race, I say.

32 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make:
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punish't for their sake:

33 Because they vex't his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.

34 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
they slew the people tho:

35 But were among the heathen mixt,
and learn'd their works also:

36 And did their idols serve, which were
their ruine and decay:

37 So fiends their sons and daughters they did offer up and slay.

38 Yea, with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltless blood they spilt:
Yea, their own sons and daughters blood
without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then
offred with wicked hand:
And so with blood of innocents
defiled was the land.

39 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:
And with their own inventions,
a whoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled fore:
And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.

41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey,
And made their foes their lords, whom were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yea, and their hateful enemies
oppress't them in the land.

And they were humbly made to stoop
as subjects to their hand

43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.

Therefore they, by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie:

44 Yet when he saw them in distress,
he hearkned to their cry.

45 He call'd to mind his covenant
which he to them had sworn:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to find
before the sight of those That led them captive from their land,
when erst they were their foes.

47 Save us, O Lord, that art our God,
save us, O Lord, we pray:
And from among the heathen folk,
Lord, gather us away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name:
That we may glory in thy praise
and sounding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Gonfiremini Dom. Psal. 107. W. K.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:

And that his mercy hath, so end
all mortal men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his name:
And shew how they from foes were freed,
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so far about:

From east to west, from north to south
his hand did find them out.

4 They wandred in the wilderness
and strayed from the way:
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:

That faintness did them fore assault,
and eke their souls annoy'd.

6 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
We did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guide:
That they might to a city go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

9 For he the empty soul sustain'd,
whom thirst had made to faint:
The hungry soul with goodness fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as do dwell in darkness deep,
where they on death do wait:
Fast bound to taste such troublous storms,
as iron chains do threat.

The second part.

- 11 For that against the Lords own words
they fought so to rebel:
Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so for excel.
- 12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief:
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.
- 13 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.
- 14 For he from darkness out them brought,
and from deaths dreadful shade:
Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did fade.
- 15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
- 16 For he threw down the gates of brass,
and brake them with strong hand:
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.
- 17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel,
and cannot from them wend:
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.
- 18 Their soul so much did lothe all meat,
that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.
- 19 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.
- 20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soon restore:
And brought them from those dangers wherein they were before, (deep

The third part.

- 21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
- 22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks, and also fear:
And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyful cheer.
- 23 Such as in ships and little barks
into the seas descend,
Their merchandise through fearful floods
to compass and to end:
- 24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep, the same
most marvellous they see.
- 25 For at his word the stormy wind
aristeth in a rage,
And stirreth up the surges so,
as nought can them assuage.
- 26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain:
And plunging down the depth until,
their souls consume with pain.
- 27 And like a drunkard, to and fro
now here now there they reel,
As men with fear of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feel.

Psal. cviii. cix.

- 28 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.
- 29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdy storms to cease:
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.
- 30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave:
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so fain would have.

The fourth part

- 31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
- 32 Let them in presence of the folk
with praise extol his Name:
And where the elders do convent,
there let them do the same.
- 33 For running floods to dry deserts
he doth oft change and turn:
And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.
- 34 A fruitful land with pleasures deckt
full barren doth he make:
When on their sins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.
- 35 Again the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear:
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.
- 36 Wherein such hungry souls are set
as he doth freely chuse:
That they a city may them build
to dwell in for their use.
- 37 That they may sow their pleasant and vineyards also plant, (land,
To yield them fruits of such increase,
as none may seem to want.
- 38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth bless them so:
Who doth also the brute beasts make
by numbers great to grow.
- 39 But when the faithful are low brought
by the oppressors stout,
And minish do through many plagues
that compass them about:
- 40 Then doth he princes bring to shame
which did them fore oppress,
And likewise caused them to err
within the wilderness.
- 41 But yet the poor he raiseth up
out of his troubles deep:
And oft-times doth his train augment,
much like a flock of sheep.
- 42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much joyce:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.
- 43 But who is wife, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive
the kindness of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. 108. J. H.

O God, my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is fo:
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving praise also.

- 2 Awake my viol and my harp
sweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.
- 3 By me among the people, Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.
- 4 Because thy mercy, Lord, is great
above the heavens high:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty sky.
- 5 Above the starry heavens high
exalt thy self, O God:
And, Lord, display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.
- 6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty
Help, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
- 7 God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound:
Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth-ground.
- 8 And Gilead shall be mine own,
Manasses mine shall be:
My head-strength, Ephraim; and law
shall Judah give for me.
- 9 Moab my washpot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
- 10 Who shalt into the city strong
be guide to conduct me?
Or how, by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?
- 11 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late
hadst us forsaken quite?
And thou, O Lord, which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight:
- 12 Give us, O Lord thy saving aid
when troubles do assaile:
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.
- 13 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown:
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea, he shall tread them down.

Deus, laudem tuam. Psal. 109. N.

- IN speechless silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue always:
O God, even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise:
- 2 The wicked and the guileful mouth
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues,
have spoken unto me.
- 3 They did beset me round about
with words of hateful spight:
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.
- 4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray:
5 My good with ill, my friendliness
with hate they did repay.
- 6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hateful foe to stand.
- 7 When he is judged let him then condemned be therein

And let the prayer that he makes
be turned into sin.

8 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take:

9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.

10 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place
where erst they have been fed.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store:
And let the stranger spoil the fruit
of all his toil before.

12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all:
That on his children fatherless
will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

13 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroy'd:
Their name out blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.

14 Let not his fathers wickedness
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for ay:
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.

16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the woful-hearted wight.

17 As he did curling love, it shall betide unto him so:

And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him fro.

18 As he with curling clad himself,
so it like water shall

Into his bowels, and like oyl
into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him,
to cover him for ay:

And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.

20 Lo, let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe:

Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
deal thou, I say, with me

After thy Name, deliver me;
for good thy mercies be.

22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor:

And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

23 Even so do I depart away
as doth declining shade:

And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.

24 With fasting long from needful food
enfeebled are my knees:

And all her fatness hath my flesh
enforced been to leave.

25 And I also a vile reproch
to them that made to be:

Psal. cx, cxi, cxii, cxiii.

And they that did upon me look
did shake their heads at me.

26 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercy, Lord,
save and deliver me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand:
And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord,
so shall they understand.

28 Although they curse with spight, yet shalt blest with loving voice: (thou)
They shall arise and come to shame;
thy servant shall rejoyce.

29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand
will stand the poor man by,
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. 110. N.

The Lord did say unto my Lord,
sit thou on my right hand
Till I have made thy foes a stool
whereon thy feet shall stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the scepter of thy might:
Amid thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their sight.

3 And in the day on which thy reign
and power they shall see:
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee.

Yea, with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all:
Thy births dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say:
By th' order of Melchisedech
thou art a Priest for ay.

5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay, Shall wound for thee the stately kings
upon his wrathful day.

6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead:
And over divers countrys shall
in sunder smite the head.

And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way:
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his royal head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 111. N.

With heart I do accord
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just.

2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound
As do him love and trust.

3 His works are glorious,
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.

4 His wondrous works he would

We still remember should,
His mercy faileth never.

5 Such as to him love bear,
Apportion full fair

He hath up for them laid:
For this they shall well find,

He will them have in mind,
And keep them as he said.

6 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his work ensueth
Both judgment, right, and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed sure
For ever to endure,
Which equity doth end,
Redemption he gave
His people for to save:

9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But always to prevail:
His holy name be feared.

10 Whofo with heart full fair
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey:
Such as his laws do keep
Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for ay.

Benedictus vir. Psal. 112. W. K.

The man is blest that God doth fear,
And that his law doth love indeed:

2 His seed on earth God will uprear,
And blest such as from him proceed.

3 His house with good he will fulfil,
His righteousness endure shall still.

4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darkness light.
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy always in his sight.

5 Yea, pity moveth such to lend,
He doth by judgment things expend.

6 And surely such shall never fail,
For in remembrance had is he:

7 No tidings ill can make him quail
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.

8 His heart his firm, his fear is past,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poor provide,
His righteousness shall still remain:

And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain.

10 Yea, gnash his teeth therat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. 113. W. K.

Ye children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his Name with one accord.

2 Yea, blessed be always his Name,
3 Who from the rising of the sun,
Till it return where it begun,
Is to be praised with great fame.

4 The Lord all people doth surmount;
As for his glory we may count,
Above the heavens high to be.

5 With God the Lord who may compare,
Whose dwellings in the heavens are:

Of such great power and force is he.

6 He doth abase himself, we know,
1 things to behold both here below,
And also in heaven above.
7 The needy out of dust do draw,
And eke the poor which help none saw,
His onely mercy did him move.
8 And so him set in high degree
With princes of great dignity,
That rule his people with great fame.
9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear:
Therefore praise ye his holy Name.

In exitu Israel. Psal. 114. W. W.

WHEN Israel by Gods address
from Pharaohs land was bent:
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same train went:
2 In Judah God his glory shew'd,
his holiness most bright:
So did the Israelites declare his kingdom, power, and might.
3 The sea it saw, and suddenly
as all amaz'd did flee:
The roaring streams of Jordans flood
recoyled backwardly.
4 As rams afraid, the mountains skip,
their strength did them forsake:
And as the silly trembling lambs,
their tops did beat and shake.
5 What ail'd thee sea, as all amaz'd,
so suddenly to flee?
Yerolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?
6 Why shook ye hills, as rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?
Why did your tops, as trembling lambs,
for fear quiver and quake?
7 O earth, confesse thy soveraign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Jacobs God
fear ye both sea and land.
8 I mean the God, which from hard rocks
doth cause main floods appear:
And from the stony flint doth cause
gush out the fountains clear.

Non nobis, Domine. Psal. 115. N.

NOT unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy Name give praise,
Both for thy mercy and thy truth
that are in thee: always.
2 Why shall the heathen scorn us say,
where is their God become?
3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.
4 Their idols silver are and gold,
works of mens hands they be:
5 They have a mouth, and do not speak;
and eyes, and do not see:
6 And they have ears joyn'd to their
and do not hear at all: (heads,
And noses ke they formed have,
and do not smell withal.
7 And hands they have, and handle not;
and feet, and do not go:
A throat they have, yet through their they make no sound to blow. (same 8 Those that make them are like to them
and those whose trust they be.
9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he:
11 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and shield is he:
12 The Lord that mindful been of us,
and will us bless also:
On Israel and on Aarons house
his blessings he will shew.
13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bless them all,
Even he will bless them every one,
the great and eke the small.
14 To you (I say) the living Lord
will multiply his grace:
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.
15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I say:
Which both the heaven and the earth
hath made and set in stay.
16 The heavens, yea, the heavens high belong unto the Lord:
The earth unto the sons of men
he gave of free accord.
17 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renown:
Nor any that into the place
of silence do go down.
18 But we will praise the Lord our God
from hence forth and for ay:
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. 116. N.

I Love the Lord, because my voice
and prayer heard hath he:
2 When in my days I call'd on him,
he bow'd his ear to me.
3 Even when the snares of cruel death
about beset me round:
When pains of hell me caught, and when I woe and sorrow found:
4 Upon the Name of God my Lord
then did I call, and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 The Lord is very merciful,
and just he is also:
And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.
6 The Lord in safety doth preserve
all those that simple be:
I was in woful misery,
and he delivered me.
7 And now my soul, sith thou art safe,
return unto thy rest:
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath express.
8 Because thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall:
My moistned eyes from mournful tears,
my sliding feet from fall:
9 Before the Lord I in the land
of life will walk therefore:
10 I did believe, therefore I spake:
for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distress and fear,
that all men liars be:
12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

13 The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lords Name I will call
when I my prayer make.
14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him behight:
Yea, even at that present time
in all his peoples sight.
15 Right dear and precious in his sight
the Lord doth ay esteem
The death of all his holy ones,
what ever men do deem.
16 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo,
I do my self confesse,
Son of thy handmaid: thou hast broke
the bonds of my distress.
17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise:
And I will call upon the Name
of God the Lord always.
18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him behight, Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples sight.
19 Yea, in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee,
O thou Jerusalem, I say,
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 117. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord always:
And all ye people every where
set forth his noble praise.
2 For great his kindness is to us,
his truth endures for ay:
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Confitemini. Psal. 118. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.
2 Let Israel confesse and say,
His mercy dures for ay:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
His mercy dures for ay.
4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confesse and say,
The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for ay.
5 In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cri'd:
Which lovingly heard me as large,
my suit was not deny'd.
6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my desire
upon mine enemy.
8 Better it is to trust in God
then in mans mortal feed:
9 Or to put confidence in kings
or princes in our need.
10 All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round:
But in the Name of God shall I
mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in, I say:
But in the Lords most mighty Name
I shall work their decay.
12 They came about me all like bees,
but yet in the Lords name
I quench't their thorns that were on fire
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquish't all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed
a Saviour most strong.
15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things:
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth most mighty things to pass: (bring His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is at it was.
17 I shall not die, but ever live
to utter and declare
The Lord his might and wondrous
his works, and what they are: (power, 18 The Lord himself hath chastened
and hath correcte'd me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.
19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them
the Lords praise to express.
20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut
But good and righteous men alway shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me,
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.
22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused,
Is now become the corner-stone,
and chiefly to be used.
23 This was the mighty work of God.
this was the Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble act.
24 This is the joyful day indeed,
which God himself hath wrought:
Let us be glad and joy therein
in heart, in mind, in thought.
25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we with with one accord:
26 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
bind ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.
28 Thou art my God, I will confess,
and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.

29 Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. 119. W. W.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in mind and heart:
Whose lives and conversations
from Gods laws never start.
2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him swerve.
3 Doubtless such men go not astray
nor do no wicked thing,
Which stedfastly walk in his way
without any wandering.
4 It is thy will and commandment,
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.
5 O would to God it might thee please
my ways to addres,
That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confes!
9 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus set mine eyes,
And bend my mind alway to muse
on thy sacred decrees.
7 Then will I praise with upright heart,
and magnifie thy name,
When I shall learn thy judgments just,
and likewise prove the same.
8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy laws most right:
Forfake me not for ever, Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.
10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.
11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
12 We magnifie thy name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.
13 My lips have never ceas't to preach
and publish day and night
The judgments all which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.
Thy testimonies and thy ways
please me no less indeed
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.
15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark, so will I aim
thy ways how I may walk.
16 My only joy shall be so fixt,
and on thy laws so set:
That nothing can me so far blind,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep
both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut
so open and make bright: (up,
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.
19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose
my footsteps for to clear.
20 My soul is ravish't with desire,
and never is at rest:
But seeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may please thee best.
21 The proud men and malicious
thou hast destroy'd each one:
And curst are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.
22 Lord, turn from me rebuke and shame
which wicked men conspire:
For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire.
23 The princes great in counsel sat,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
24 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve in stead of counsellors
my matters for to pass,

DALETH. The fourth part.

25 I am, alas, as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
26 My ways when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didst hear:
Hear now ere soon, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.
27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.
28 My soul I feel so sore oppress't,
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore haste, Lord, to send relief.
29 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me fend.
30 The way of truth both strait and sure
I have chosen and found:
I set thy judgements me before,
which keep me safe and sound.
31 Since then, O Lord, I forc'd my self thy covenants to embrace:
let me therefore have no rebuke
nor check in any case.
32 Then will I run with joyful cheer
where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast set my heart at large
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right trade
of thy statutes divine:

And it to keep even to the end
my heart will I incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:

With heart and mind and all my might
I will it keep, I say.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me, Lord, I require:

None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.

36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:

And from all filthy avarice,
Lord, shield me with thy grace.

37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight:

Give me the spirit of life and power
to walk thy ways aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord,
which thou hast made to me,

Which am thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so fear,
from me, O Lord, expel:

For thou dost judge with equity
and therein dost excel.

40 Behold, my hearts desire is be thy laws to keep for ay:

Lord, strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

V A U. The fifth part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain, O Lord:

Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.

42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths
of leud men and unjust:

For in thy faithful promises
stands my comfort and trust.

43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest:

For in thy judgements wonderful
my hope doth stand and rest.

44 And whilst that breath within my doth natural life preserve, (breath

Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I as set at large,
and made free from all dread:

Because I fought how for to keep
thy precepts and thy read.

46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great fame:

Even before kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey
thy worthy behests and will:

Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.

48 My hands I will lift to thy laws
which I have dearly sought:

And praise thy commandments
in will, in deed, in thought

Z A I N. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember:

For therein have I put my trust
and confidence for ever.

50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me assail:

For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.

51 The proud and such as God contemn
still made of me a scorn:

Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn:

52 But call'd to mind, Lord, thy great shew'd to our fathers old: (works

Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred-fold.

53 But yet, alas, for fear I quake,
seeing how wicked men

Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgments who knows when?

54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt,

When I among the strangers dwell,
and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep:

As for thy law also I kept,
and ever will it keep.

56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear

I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay,

I have detre'd and promised
thy laws to keep alway.

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face:

As thou therefore hast promised
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and tri'd my secret heart:

Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothful are:

But hastily thy laws to keep
I did my self prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey:

Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.

62 Thy righteous judgements towards me
so great are and so high:

That even at midnight will I rise
thy name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their heart:

And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously
do all the world fulfil:

O teach me how I may obey
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt:

For of thy grace in sundry sorts have I thy servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge always aright,
and give me knowledge sure:

For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod,
I err'd and went astray:

But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and giv'st most liberally:

Thine ordinances how to keep
therefore, O Lord, teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men have against me many a lie: (forg'd

Yet thy commandments still observe with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are swoln with worldly
as grease so are they fat: (wealth,

But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time, may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:

For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold.

Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

70 D. The tenth part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord
to be thy creature:

Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy laws in ure.

74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce
when ever they me see:

Because I have learn'd by thy word
to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is,
I know the cause is just: (plagu'd,

So when thou dost correct me, Lord,
the cause just needs be must.

76 Now of thy goodness I thee pray
some comfort to me send:

As thou to me thy servant hetst,
so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
and I shall surely live:

For joy and consolation both
thy law to me doth give.

78 Confound the proud, whose false pre-is me for to destroy: (tence

But as for me, thy helts to know
I will my self employ.

79 Who so with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:

And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy laws be bent:

That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be shent.

C A P H. The eleventh part.

81 My soul doth faint, and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave:

And for thy words sake still I trust
my hearts desire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say,

Oh when wilt thou me comfort, Lord?
why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a skin bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and dri'd:

Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet live
before I see the hour,

That

That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour:

87 Presumptuous men have digged pits,
thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy law,
my hurt they do procure.

88 But thy commandments are all true,
and causeless they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou might'st me relieve.

89 Almost they had me clean destroy'd,
and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

90 Restore me, Lord, again to life,
for thy mercies excel:
And so shall I thy covenants keep till death my life expel.

L A M E D. The twelfth part.

91 In heaven, Lord, where thou dost thy word is stablish'd sure: (dwell,
And shall for all eternity
fast graven there endure.

92 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness:
Whose ground-work thou hast laid so
as no tongue can express. (sure

93 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere.
According to thine ordinance,
for all things thee revere.

94 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought,
Long time ere now in my distress
I had been brought to naught.

95 Therefore will I thy precepts ay
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at last cast.

96 No wight to me can title make,
for I am only thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy laws
mine ears and heart incline.

97 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait:
But I the while considered
thy noble works and great.

98 I see nothing in this wide world
at length which hath not end:
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all end extend.

M E M. The thirteenth part.

99 What great desire and fervent love
do I bear to thy law!
All the day long my whole device
is only on thy law.

100 Thy word hath taught me far to pass
my foes in policy:
For still I hold it as a thing
of most excellency.

101 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excel:
Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.

102 In wisdom I do pass also the ancient men indeed:
And all because to keep thy laws
I held it ay best reed.

103 My feet I have refrained eke
from every evil way,

P A I N. C R I X.

Because that I continually
thy word might keep, I say.

102 I have not swerv'd from thy judge-ner yet thrunk any dell: (ments,
For why? thou hast me taught thereby
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste
find I thy words away!
Doubtless no honey in my mouth
feel ought so sweet I may.

104 Thy laws have me such wisdom
that utterly I hate (learn'd,
All wicked and ungodly ways,
in every kind or rate.

N U N. The fourteenth part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright:
And to my paths where e'er I go
it is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn, and will perform
most certainly doubtless,
That I will keep thy judgments just,
and them in life express.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress'd,
and brought me to deaths door:
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.

108 The offerings which with heart and most frankly I thee give, (voice Accept; and teach me how I may after thy judgments live.

109 My soul is ay so in my hand,
that dangers me assail:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets
to catch me at a bay, Yet did I not from thy precepts
once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway
as mine own heritage:
And why? for therein delight,
and set my whole courage.

112 For evermore I have been bent
thy statutes to fulfil:
Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

S A M E C H. The fifteenth part.

113 The crafty thoughts and double
I do always detest: (hearts
But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:
Therefore have I thy promises
lookt for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:
For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promis'd so perform,
that death me not assail:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
That through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet
as do thy statutes break:

For nought avails their subtilty
their counsel is but weak.

119 Like drops thou casts the wicked out
where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh, alas, is taken with fear,
as though it were benum'd:
For when I see thy judgments, straight
I am as one aston'd.

A I N. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is,
and give to all men right:
Religne me not to them that would oppress me with their might.

122 But for thy servant surety be in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foil,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now
thy health so much I crave: (blind,
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
whereby thou wilt me save.

124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellency
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am,
grant me to understand How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth is quite decay'd:
Thy law likewise they have transgress'd,
and none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws better than gold:
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store:
All crafty and malicious ways
I do abhor therefore.

P E. The seventeenth part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonder full
and full of things profound:
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are tri'd and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word
they find a light most clear:
And very idiots understand
when they it read or hear.

131 For joy I have both gap'd and breath'd
to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.

132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above,
As thou art wont to behold such
as thy name fear and love.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquity
thy servant overthrow.

134 From slanderous tongues and deadly preserve and keep me sure: (harms Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure.

Let shine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to eschew.

of dreary tears and fell, (out
When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep never a dell.

L A D E. The eighteenth part.

1 7 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous judge.
138 To render right, and see from guile;
are two chief points most high:
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straitly.
139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pin'd away,
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deen:
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.
141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.
142 Thy righteousness, Lord, is most just,
for ever to endure:
Also thy law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.
143 Trouble and grief have seiz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still of thy precepts
delight to hear and know.
144 The righteousness of thy judgments
doth last for evermore:
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P H The nineteenth part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and cri'd,
now answer me, O Lord:
That thy commandments to observe
I may fully accord.
146 To thee, my God, I make my suit
with most humble request:
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy hefts.
147 To thee I cry even in the morn
before the day wax light:
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.
148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by
and ere they call I wake: (night,
That by deviling on thy word
I might some comfort take.
149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice,
and pity on me take:
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw near, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and stray'd from it lowly.
151 Therefore, O Lord approach thou for need doth so require: (near,
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.
152 But thy commandments have I learn'd
not now but long ago;

Psal. CXX, CXI.
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

R E S H The twentieth part.

153 My trouble and affliction
consider and behold:
Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous
with speed some succour send: (cause,
From death, as thou hast promised,
Lord, keep me and defend.
155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statutes know
they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant,
what tongue can them attain?
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.
157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went awry therefore.
158 And truth it is, for grief I die
when I these traitours see:
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.
159 Behold, for I do love thy laws
with heart most glad and fain:
As thou art good and gracious, Lord,
restore my life again.
160 What thy word doth decree must be
and so it hath been ever:
Thy righteous judgments are also most true, and decay never.

S C H I N. The one and twentieth part.

161 Princes have sought by cruelty
causeless to make me croach:
But all in vain; for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Then he that of rich spoils and prey
great store and plenty had.
163 As for all lies and fallacies,
I hate most and detest:
For why? thy holy law do I above all things love best.
164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord,
singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderful
so cause me to rejoyce.
165 Great peace and rest shall all such as do thy statutes love: (have No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.
166 My onely health and comfort, Lord,
I look for at thy hand:
And therefore have I done those things
which thou didst me command.
167 Thy laws have been mine exercise,
which my soul most desir'd:
So much to them my love was bent
that nought else I requir'd.
168 Thy statutes and commandments
I kept (thou know'st) aright:
For all the things that I have done
are present in thy sight.

T A U. The two and twentieth part.
169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.
170 Mine humble supplication
toward thee let find access:
And grant me, Lord, deliverance,
for so is thy promise.
171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy and on this wise say shall, (word, Gods famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.
173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech,
and speedily me save:
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.
174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.
175 Grant me therefore long days to live,
thy name to magnitie:
And of thy judgments merciful
let me the favour try.
176 For I was lost and went astray
much like a wandring sheep:
Oh seek me, for I have not fail'd
thy commandments to keep.
Ad Dominum. Psal. 120. T. S.
I N trouble and in thrall
Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.
2 Deliver me, I say,
From liars lips alway,
And tongues of false report.
3 What vantage, or what thing,
Gett'st thou thus for to sing,
Thou false and flatter'ing liar?
4 Thy tongue doth hurt, I ween,
No less then arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.
5 Alas! too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedars are by name,
By whom the flock elect
And all of Isaacs sect
Are put to open shame.
6 Wish them that peace did hate.
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life:
7 But when my tale was told,
Causeless I was controll'd
By them that would have strife.
Lervavi oculos. Psal. 121. W. W.
I Lift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.
2 The mighty God me succour will,
Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.
3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep.
4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve
No sleep at all can him catch,
But his eye shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover
As at thy right hand ever :

6 The sun shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the moon not half so bright
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distress,
And will thy life sure save :

8 And thou shalt also have
In all thy business good success.
Where-ever thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about :

Latus sum. Psal. 122. W. K.

I Did in heart rejoyce
to hear the peoples voice,

In offering so willingly :
2 For let us up, say they,
And in the Lords house pray :
Thus spoke the folk full loyngly.

3 Our feet that wandred wide
Shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full fair,
Which art so seemly fet
Much like a city neat,
The like whereof is not elsewhere.

4 The tribes with one accord,
The tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take :
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderly :
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davids house pertain,
His folk to judge accordingly,

6 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalems peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily :
7 Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout
Thy palaces continually.

8 I with thy prosperous state
For my poor brethrens sake,
That comfort have by means of thee.
9 Gods house doth me allure
Thy wealth for to procure
So much alway as lies in me.

Ad te levavi. Psal. 123. T. S.

O Lord that heaven dost possess,
I lift mine eyes to thee :
2 Even as the servant lifteth his,
his masters hands to see.
As handmaids watch their mistres hand
some grace for to achieve :
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord, grant us thy compassion,
and mercy in thy sight :
For we are fill'd and overcome
with hatred and despight.
4 Our minds be stuff with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wise
Do make of us their mocking-stocks,
the proud do us despise.

Nisi quis Dom. Psal. 124. W. W.

NOW Israel
may say, and that truly,

If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd ;

2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
When all the world
against us furiously
Made their uproars,
and said we should all die :

3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem :
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.

4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall :
So had they now
our lives even brought to thall.

5 The raging streams,
most proud in roing noise,
Had long ago
o'rewhelm'd us in the deep :

6 But lov'd be God
which doth us safely keep From bloody teeth,
and their most cruel voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers gin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us :
Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.

8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then :
His name hath sav'd
us from these wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Psal. 125. W. K.

SUCH as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand.
The Lord will count them right and just :
So that they shall be sure
For ever to endure.

2 As mighty mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close :
So will the Lord do unto those Who on his godly will do wait :
Such are to him so dear,
They never need to fear.

3 For though the righteous try doth he
By making wicked men his rod, Lest they through grief forsake their
It shall not as their lot still be. (God,

4 Give, Lord, to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right :

5 But as for such as turn aside
By crooked ways which the out sought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought ;
With workers vile they shall abide :
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell

Another of the same, by R. W.

THOSE that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God only,
And flee to him for their defence
In all their need and misery :
Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone,

Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem
The mighty hills do it compass,
So that no enemies come to them
To hurt that town in any case :
So God indeed in every need
His faithful people doth defend,
Stranding them by assuredly
From this time forth world without end.

Right wife and good is our Lord God
And will not suffer certainly
The sinners and ungodly's rod
To tarry upon his family :
Lest they also from God should go,
Falling to sin and wickedness.
O Lord, defend world without end (ness.
Thy Christian flock through thy good-

O Lord, do good to Christians all
That stedfast in thy word abide :
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end :
But, Lord, grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the holy Ghost, whose light
Shine in our hearts, and us succour :
That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie :
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say, Amen.

In convertendo. Psal. 126. W. W.

WHEN that the Lord
again his Sion had forth brought From bondage great,
and also servitude extreme ;
His work was such
as did surmount mans heart and thought :
So that we were
much like to them that use to dream.
2 Our mouths were
with laughter filled then,
And eke our tongues
did shew us joyfull men.

The heathen folk
were forced then this to confess,
How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.

3 But much more we,
and therefore can confess no less :
Wherefore to joy

we have good cause as we begun.

4 O Lord, go forth,
thou canst our bondage end :

As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

5 Full true it is that they which sow in tears indeed,
A time will come
when they shall reap in mirth and joy.

6 They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed,
For that their foes
full often times did them annoy :
But their return
with joy they shall sure see,
Their sheaves home bring,
and not empai'd be.

Nisi Dom. Psal. 127. W. W.

EXcept the Lord the house doth make,
And thereunto doth set his hand:
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men undertake
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with brown bread,
Yet were your labour lost and worn:
But they whom God doth love and keep Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when ever ye see
That men have heirs to enjoy their land,
It is the gift of Gods own hand:
For God himself doth multiply
Of his great liberality
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age
They grow in strength and activeness,
In person and in comeliness:

So that a shaft shot with courage
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

Oh well is he that hath his quiver
Furnished with such artillery:
For when in peril he shall be,
Such one shall never shake nor shiver.
When that he pleads before the judge
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. 128. T. S.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way:

2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy art thou, I say.
3 Like fruitful vines on thy house-side
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like olive plants
thy table round about.

4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see 5 The promised Jerusalem
and her felicitie.

6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great joys increase:
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperity and peace.

Sape expugnauerunt. Psal. 129. N.

Oft they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth assail'd:
2 Oft they assail'd me from my youth,
yet never they prevail'd.

3 Upon my back the plowes plow'd,
and furrows long did cast:

4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords
of wicked foes at last.

5 They that hate me shall be asham'd,
and turned back also:

6 We made us gras upon the house,
which withereth ere it grow:

7 Whereof the mower cannot find enough to fill his hand:
Nor can he fill his lap, that goeth
to glean upon the land.

8 Nor passers by pray God on them
to let his blessing fall:
Nor say, we blest you in the name
of God the Lord at all:

Depreundis. Psal. 130. W. W.

Lord, to thee I make my moan
when dangers me oppress:
I call, I sigh, plain and groane,
trusting to find release.

2 Hear now, O Lord, my request,
for it is full due time:
And let thine ears ay be prest
unto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh
our sins and them peruse:
Who shall then escape, and say,
I can my self excuse?

4 But, Lord, thou art merciful,
and turn'st to us thy grace,
That we with hearts most careful
should fear before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust,
my soul waits on his will:
For his promise is most just,
and I hope therein still.
6 My soul to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway
More then they that watch and ward
to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly
in the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercy
that his deliver must.

8 For he it is that must save
Israel from his sin,
And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

Domine, non est. Psal. 131. M.

O Lord, I am not puffed in mind,
I have no scornful eye:

I do not exercise my self
in things that be too high.

2 But as the child that weaned is even from his mothers breast:
So have I, Lord, behav'd my self
in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel, trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay
From this time forth for evermore,
from age to age, I say.

Memento, Dom. Psal. 132. M.

Remember Davids troubles, Lord,
how to the Lord he swore,

2 And vow'd a vow to Jacobs God,
to keep for evermore:

3 I will not come within my house,
nor climb up to my bed,

4 Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor the eyes in my head,

5 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we hear this sound:
And in the fields and forests there
these voices first were found.

7 We will assay, and go in now
his tabernacle there,
Before his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise, I say,
into thy resting-place:

Behold thou and the ark of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:

10 Let all thy saints and holy men
sing all with joyfulness.

11 And for thy servant Davids sake,
refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth,
and will not shrink from it, Saying, The fruit of thy body
upon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sons my covenant keep,
that I shall learn each one:
Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion,
and loves therein to dwell,

14 Saying, This is my resting-place,
I Love and like it well.

15 And I will blest with great increase her victuals every where:
And I will satisfie with bread
the needy that be there.

16 Yea, I will deck and clothe her priests
with my salvation:
And all her saints shall sing for joy
of my protection.

17 There will I surely make the horn
of David for to bud:
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.

18 As for his enemies, I will clothe with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more bright then heretofore.

Ecce quam. Psal. 133. W. W.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyfull for to see,
Brethren together fast to hold
the band of amity!

2 It calls to mind that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the sacrificers head
by Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone,
but drencht his beard throughout,
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.

3 And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill.
And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill:

Even so the Lord doth pour on them
his blessings manifold, Whose hearts and minds without all this knot do keep and hold. (guile)

Ecce nunc. Psal. 134. W. W.

Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord,
Which in his house by night do watch:
praise him with one accord.
Lift up your hands on high unto his holy place,
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

3 For why? the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Zion bleſs, and will conſerve
for evermore the ſame.

Laudate nomen. Pſal. 135. N.

O Praise the Lord, praise him, praise
him with one accord: (him, O praise him still all ye that be
the ſervants of the Lord:
2 O praise him ye that ſtand and be in the houſe of the Lord:
Ye of his court, and of his houſe,
praise him with one accord.
3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
ſing praises to his Name:
It is a comely and good thing
always to do the ſame.
4 For why? the Lord hath choſe Jacob
his very own ye ſee:
So hath he choſen Iſrael
his treaſure for to be.
5 For this I know and am right ſure,
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed above all gods
moſt eaſie to intreat.
6 For whatſoever pleaſed him
all that ſhall well he wrought:
In heaven, in earth, and in the ſea,
which he hath made of nought.
7 He liſts up clouds even from the earth,
he makes lightnings and rain,
He bringeth forth the winds alſo,
he made nothing in vain.
8 He ſmote the firſt-born of each thing
in Egypt that took reſt:
He ſpared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beaſt.
9 He hath in thee ſhew'd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts,
On Pharaoh thy curſed king,
and his ſevere ſervants.
10 He ſmote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:
He ſlew the great and mightieſt
and chiefeſt of their kings.
11 He ſhon king of the Amorites,
and Og king of Baſan:
He ſlew alſo the kingdoms all
that were of Canaan:
12 And gave their land to Iſrael,
an heritage we ſee,
To Iſrael his own people,
an heritage to be.

The ſecond part.

13 Thy Name, O Lord, ſhall ſtill endure,
and thy memorial
Throughout all generations
that are or ever ſhall.
14 The Lord will ſurely now avenge
his people all indeed:
And to his ſervants he will ſhew
favour in time of need.
15 The idols of the heathen are made
in all the coaſts and lands:
Of ſilver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.
16 They have their mouthes, and cannot and eyes that have no ſight: (ſpeak, 17 They have eke ears, and hear nothing,
their mouthes be breathleſs quite.

Pſal. CXXXV, CXXXVI.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them
that ſo do ſet them forth:
And likewiſe thoſe that truſt in them,
or think they be ought worth,
19 O all ye houſe of Iſrael,
ſee that ye praise the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons houſe,
praise him with one accord.
20 And ye that be of Levi's houſe,
praise ye likewiſe the Lord:
And ye that ſtand in aw of him,
praise him with one accord.
21 And out of Zion ſound his praise,
the great praise of the Lord
Which dwelleth in Jeruſalem:
praise him with one accord.

Another of the ſame, by T. C.

O Laud the Lord benigne,
Whoſe mercies laſt for ay:
2 Give thanks and praises ſing
To God of gods, I ſay.

For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and ſure
Eternally.

3 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whoſe mercies ay do dure:
4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great power.
For certainly, &c.

5 Which God omnipotent,
By his great wiſdom high.
The heavenly firmament
Did frame as we may ſee.
For certainly, &c.

6 Yea, he the heavy charge
Of all the earth did ſtretch:
And on the waters large
The ſame he did out-reach.
For certainly, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be;
For why? his love is ay:
8 Such as the ſun we ſee,
To rule the lightſom day.
For certainly, &c.

9 And eke the moon ſo clear
Which ſhineath in our light,
And ſtars that do appear,
To guide the darkſom night.
For certainly, &c.

10 With grievous plagues and ſore
All Egypt ſmote he than:
The firſt-born leſs and more
He ſlew of beaſt and man.
For certainly, &c.

11 And from amidſt their land
His Iſrael forth brought:
12 Which he with mighty hand
And ſtretched arm hath wrought.
For certainly, &c.

13 The ſea he cut in two,
Which ſtood up like a wall:
14 And made through it to go
His choſen children all.
For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then
The proud king Pharaoh,
With his huge hoſt of men,
And chariots eke alſo.
For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wilderneſs
His people ſafe and ſound:
17 And for his love endleſs
Great kings he brought to ground.
For certainly, &c.

18 And ſlew with puſſant hand
Kings mighty and of fame:
19 As of Amorites land
Shon the king by name.
For certainly, &c.

20 And Og (the giant large)
Of Baſan king alſo:
21 Whoſe land for heritage
He gave his people tho.
For certainly, &c.

22 Even unto Israel
His servant dear, I say,
He gave the same to dwell,
And there abide for ay.
For certainly, &c.

23 To mind he did us call
In our most base degree:
24 And from oppressours all
In safety set us free.
For certainly, &c.

25 All flesh in earth abroad
With food he doth fulfil:
26 Wherefore of heaven the God
To laud be it your will,
For certainly, &c.

Super flumina. Psal. 137. W. W.

When as we sat in Babylon
the rivers round about,
And in remembrance of Sion
the tears for grief burst out:
2 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow-trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
said to us, tauntingly,
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs,
and pleasant melody.

4 Alas! said we, who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing
The praises of our loving God,
thus under a strange king?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth
be ty'd for ever fast,
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now
the cursed noise and cry.
That Edoms sons against us made,
when they ras'd our city.
Remember, Lord, their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, O, sack, and rase their walls,
in despite of their Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.

9 Yea, blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy children young
To dash their bones against hard stones
that lie the streets among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 138. N.

Thee will I praise with my whole heart,
my Lord my God, always:

Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy temple I will look and worship thee:

And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holy name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withal:

For thou thy Name hast by thy word
advanced over all.

3 When I did call thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also

Psal. cxxxvii, cxxxviii, cxxxix, cxi.

The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.

4 Yea, all the kings on earth they shall give praise to thee, O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.

5 They of the ways of God the Lord
in singing shall entreat:
Because the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high, and yet ye doth behold the lowly sprite:
But he (contemning) knows afar
the proud and lofty wight.

7 Although in midit of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand Renewed by thee: O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand
Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be
By thy right hand: the Lord God will perform his work to me.

8 Thy mercy, Lord, endures for ay,
Lord, do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the work
which thine own hand did make.

Domine probasti. Psal. 139. N.

O Lord, thou hast me try'd & known,
my sitting thou dost know

2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar
thou understand'st also.

3 My paths, yea, and my lying down
thou compass'st always.
And by familiar custom art acquainted with my ways.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:

5 Thou me behind hold'st and before,
thou lay'st thine hand on me.

6 Too wonderful above my reach,
Lord, is thy cunning skill:
It is so high that I the same cannot attain until.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing spirit,
Lord, whither shall I go?

Or whither shall I flee away
thy presence to scape fro?

8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo, thou art present there:

In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appear.

9 Yea, let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and bide

Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide:

10 Yea, even thither also shall
thy reaching hand me guide;

And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, The darkness shall yet shroud me from thy sight:

Lo, even also the darkest night
about me shall be light.

12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:

To thee the darkness and the light
are both alike away.

The second part.

13 For thou possidest hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,

When I within my mothers womb
enclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully
and wondrously I am:

Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formless, then thine eye
saw me: for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before that after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee, O God,
how dear are they to me!

And of them all how passing great
the endless number be!

18 If I should count them, lo, their sum
more then the sand I see:

And whensoever I awake
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men
O that thou wouldst slay!

Even those O God, to whom, Depart,
depart from me, I say.

20 Even those of thee, O Lord my God,
that speak full wickedly:

Those that are lifted up in vain,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord,
and that in earnest wife?

Contend I not against them all against thee that arise?

22 I hate them with unfeigned hate,
even as my utter foes.

23 Try me, O God, and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider Lord, if wickedness
in me there any be:

And in thy way, O God my Guide,
for ever lead thou me.

Eripe me. Psal. 140. N.

Lord, save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight:

2 And from all those which evil do
imagine in their spite.

Which make on me continual war,
their tongues lo they have wher

3 Like serpents; underneath their lips
is adders poison set.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from wicked hands, preserve me to abide

Free from the cruel man, that means
to cause my steps to slide.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net

With cords in my path-way, and grins
for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:

Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and moane.

7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the strength that saveth me:

My head in day of battle hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have
the end of his desire:

Perform not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.

9 Of them that compass are about,
the chiefest of them all,
Lord, let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall.

10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame,
And in deep pits; so as they may not rise out of the same.

11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight:
And evil to destruction still shall hunt the cruel wight.

12 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor:

13 The just shall praise thy Name: and dwell with thee evermore. (shall Domine, clamaui. Psal. 141. N.

O Lord, upon thee do I call,
Lord, haste thee unto me:
And hearken, Lord, unto my voice
when I do cry to thee.

2 As incense, let my prayers be directed in thine eyes:
And the uplifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth
set thou a watch before:
And also of my moving lips,
O Lord, keep thou the door.

4 That I should wicked works commit incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicacies,
Lord, let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord,
for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyl shall be.

Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall
When I shall in their misery
make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast:
Then shall they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.

7 Our bones about the graves mouth
lo scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he
that digges up the ground.

8 But, O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.

9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord, keep me from the snare,
And from the subtil grips of them
that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall:
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

Vox mea. Psal. 142. N.

BEfore the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.

My meditation in his sight
to pour I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

Psal. cxli, cxlii, cxliii, cxliv, cxlv.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walk a snare
they slyly laid for me.

4 I look'd and view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me, and for
my soul none cared tho.

5 Then cry'd I, Lord, to thee, and said,
my hope thou only art:
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.

6 Hark to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me to strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy name, my soul
from prison, Lord, bring out:
When thou art good to me, the just shall press me round about.

Domine exaudi. Psal. 143. N.

Lord hear my prayer, heark the plaint
that I do make to thee:

Lord, in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.

2 In judgment with thy servant, Lord,
O enter not at all:

For justify'd be in thy fight
not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown:
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred sprite:
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate:
Yea, in thy works I meditate that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord my God, lo I do stretch my craving hands:
My soul desireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.

7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth hide not thy face me fro: (fail, Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go

8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know:
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord, deliver me

From all mine enemies: for I have hidden me with thee.

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say,
Let thy good Spirit unto the land
of mercy me convey.

11 For thy names sake with quickning alive do thou me make: (grace

And out of trouble bring my soul
even for thy justice sake.

12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord, destroy them all

That do oppress my soul, for I thy servant am and shall.

Benedictus Dom. Psal. 144. N.

Bless'd be the Lord my strength, that instruct my hands to fight: (doth

The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battle by his might.

2 He is my goodnels, fort, and tower,
deliverer and shield:

In him I trust; my people he
subdues to me to yield.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in price?

Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanity,
so pass his days to end

5 As fleeting shade. Bowe down, O Lord,
the heavens, and descend.

6 The mountains touch, and they shall cast forth thy lightning flame (smoke;
And scatter them: thine arrows shoot,
consume them with the same.

7 Send down thine hand even from above,
O Lord, deliver me:

Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtil mouth of vanity
and fondness doth entreat:

And their right hand is a right hand
of falsehood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God,
and finging will I be

On viol and on instrument
ten-stringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that onely gives deliverance to kings:

Unto his servant David help
from hurtful sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save and whose mouth talks vanity: (shield,

And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtilty.

12 That our sons may be as the plants
whom growing youth doth rear:

Our daughters as carv'd corner-stones,
like to a palace fair:

13 Our garners full, and plenty may with sundry forts be found:

Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound,

14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade:

There be no goings out, nor cries
within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd,

Yea, blessed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Psal. 145. N.

Thee will I laud, my God and King,
and bless thy name for ay:

2 For ever will I praise thy name,
and bless thee day by day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise,
his greatness none can reach:

4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious majestic
the beauty will record:

And meditate upon thy works
most wonderful, O Lord.

6 And they shall of thy power, and thy fearful acts declare: of

And I to publish all abroad
thy greatness will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great:
And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing shall repeat.
8 The Lord our God is gracious,
and merciful also:
Of great abounding mercy, and
to anger he is slow:
9 Yea, good to all; and all his works
his mercie doth exceed:
10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee, Lord,
and do thy honour spread:
11 Thy saints do bleſs thee, and they do
thy kingdoms glory ſhow:
12 And blaze thy power, to cauſe the ſons
of men thy power to know.

The ſecond part.

13 And of his mighty kingdom eke
to ſpread the glorious praiſe.
Thy kingdom, Lord, a kingdom is that doth endure alwaies:
And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay.
14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall,
their ſliding he doth ſtay.
15 The eyes of all do wait on thee:
thou doſt them all relieve:
And thou to each ſufficing food
in ſeaſon due doſt give.
16 Thou openeſt thy plenteous hand,
and bounteouſly doſt fill
All things whatſoever do live
with gifts of thy good will.
17 The Lord is juſt in all his ways,
his works are holy all.
18 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He the deſires which they require that fear him will fulfil:
And he will hear them when they cry,
and ſave them all he will.
20 The Lord preſerves all thoſe, to him
that bear a loving heart:
But he them all that wicked are
will utterly ſubvert.
21 My thankful mouth ſhall gladly ſpeak
the praiſes of the Lord:
All fleſh to praiſe his holy name
for ever ſhall accord.

MY ſoul, praiſe thou the Lord alwaies,
my God I will confeſs:
2 While breath and life prolong my days
my tongue no time ſhall ceaſe.
3 Truſt not in worldly princes then,
though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the ſons of mortal men,
in whom there is no health.
4 For why? their breath doth ſoon de-

And then the counſels of their heart,
decay and periſh all.
5 O happy is that man, I ſay;
whom Jacobs God doth aid,
And he whoſe hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is ſtaid.
6 Which made the earth and waters deep,
the heavens high withal:
Which doth his word and promiſe keep
in truth, and ever ſhall.

PRAIſE ye the Lord, for it is good,
unto our God to ſing:
For it is pleaſant, and to praiſe
it is a comely thing.
2 The Lord his own Jeruſalem
he buildeth up alone:
And the diſperit of Iſrael
doth gather into one.
3 He heals the broken in their heart,
their ſores up doth he bind:
4 He counts the number of the ſtars,
and names them in their kind.
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wiſdom infinite.
6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.
7 Sing unto God the Lord with praiſe,
unto the Lord rejoyce:
And to our God upon the harp
advance your ſinging voice.
8 He covers heav'n with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain:
And on the mountains he doth make
the graſs to grow again.
9 He gives to beaſts their food, and to young ravens when they crie:
10 His pleaſure not in ſtrength of horſe
nor in mans legs doth lie:
11 But in all thoſe that fear the Lord
the Lord hath his delight,
And ſuch as do attend upon
his mercies ſhining light.

The ſecond part.

12 O praiſe the Lord, Jeruſalem,
thy God, O Sion, praiſe:
13 For he the bars hath forged ſtrong,
wherewith thy gates he ſtaies.
14 Thy children he hath bleſt in thee,
and in thy borders he Doth ſettle peace, and with the flour
[of wheat he filleth thee.
15 And his commandement upon
the earth he ſendeth out:
And eke his word with ſpeedy courſe
doth ſwiftly run about.
16 He giveth ſnow like wool, hear-froſt
like althes he doth ſpread:
17 Like morſels caſt his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?
18 He ſendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again:
His wind he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow again.

19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth ſhow:
His ſtatutes and his judgements he gives Iſrael to know.
20 With every nation hath he not ſo dealt, nor have they known His ſecret judgments; ye therefore praiſe ye the Lord alone

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. 148. J. H.

I've laud unto the Lord,
From heaven that is ſo high:
Praiſe him in deed and word,
Above the ſtarry ſkie.
2 And alſo ye,
His angels all,
Armies Royall,
Praiſe him with glee.
3 Praiſe him both moon and ſun,
Which are ſo clear and bright:
The fame of you be done,
Ye glittering ſtars of light:
4 And eke no leſs,
Ye heavens fair,
And clouds of th' air,
His laud expreſs.
5 For at this word they were
All formed as we ſee:
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree,
Which he ſet faſt;
To them he made
A law and trade
For ay to laſt.
6 Extol and praiſe Gods name
On earth ye dragons tell:
All deeps do ye the fame,
For it becomes ye well.
7 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, ſnow,
And ſtorms that blow
At his decree.
8 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitful are,
The cedars great and tall
His worthy praiſe declare.
9 Beaſts and cattel,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.
10 All kings both more and leſs
With all their pompous train.
Princes and all Judges
That in the world remain,
Exalt his name.
11 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the fame.

1. With praise and thanksgiving
 2. And now abroad upon their beds
 3. Advance their ling'ring voice.
 4. And in their mouths let be the acts
 5. Of God the mighty Lord:
 6. And in their hands eke let them bear
 7. A double-edged sword:
 8. To plague the heathen, and correct
 9. The people with their hands:
 10. To bind their stately kings in chains,
 11. Their lords in iron bands:
 12. To execute on them the doom
 13. That written is before.
 14. This honour all his saints shall have,
 15. Praise ye the Lord therefore.
Laudate Dominum. 1. sal. 150. N.
 Yield unto God the mighty Lord
 Praise in his sanctuary:

And praise him in the firmament,
 That shews his power on high:
 2. Advance his Name, and praise him in his mighty acts always:
 According to his excellency
 of greatness give him praise.
 3. His praises with the princely noise
 of sounding trumpets blow:
 Praise him upon the viol, and upon the harp also.
 4. Praise him with timbrel and with flute,
 organs and virginals:
 5. With sounding cymbals praise ye him,
 praise him with loud cymbals.
 6. What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord:
 To praise the Name of God the Lord
 agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalms.

A song to be sung before Morning
 prayer. T. B.
 Praise ye the Lord, ye Gentiles all,
 which hath brought you into his light:
 Praise him all people mortal,
 it is most worthy and right.
 He is full determined
 us to pour out his mercie:
 the Lords truth be ye assur'd
 death perpetually.
 y be to God the Father,
 d to Jesus Christ his true Son,
 the holy Ghost in like manner,
 and at every season.

A song to be sung before Evening Prayer.
 hold now give heed, such as be
 the Lords servants faithful and true:
 he praise the Lord every degree,
 h such songs as to him are due.
 that stand in the Lords house,
 in our own Gods mansion,
 ye the Lord so bounteous,
 ch worketh our salvation.
 up your hands in his holy place,
 and that in the time of night:
 ye the Lord which gives all grace,
 he is a Lord of great might.
 shall the Lord out of Sion,
 ch made heaven and earth by his
 to you and your nation. (power,
 blessing, mercy, and favour,

The ten commandments of God.
 Exodus 10. W. W.

And my people and give ear
 to my words in mind thou bear,
 my precepts listen well.

Overeign Lord & God, (thrall,
 these brought from careful
 chain'd from Pharaohs rod:
 god on them to call:

And form of any thing
 search to worship it:
 this his will unite
 his Name,

For so thou might'st soon purchase blame
 And in his wrath he would thee spill.
 4 The Lord from work the seventh day ceast,
 And brought all things to perfect end:
 So thou and thine that day take rest,
 That to Gods rests ye may attend.
 5 Unto thy parents honour give,
 As Gods commandments do intend:
 That thou long days & good mayst live
 In earth where God a place doth lend.
 6 Beware of murder and cruel hate.
 7 All filthy fornication fear.
 8 See thou steal not in any rate.
 9 False witness against no man bear.
 10 Thy neighbours house with not to His wife, or ought that he calls mine: (have
 His field, his ox, his ass, his slave,
 Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The Spirit of grace grant us, O Lord,
 To keep these laws our hearts restore:
 And cause us all with one accord
 To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have
 To keep these laws after thy will:
 Thy might therefore, O Christ, we crave,
 That we in thee may them fulfil.

Lord, for thy Names sake grant us this,
 Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ:
 Of thee to speed how should we miss,
 In whom our treasure doth consist?

To thee for evermore be praise,
 With the Father in each respect,
 And with the holy Spirit always,
 The Comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D. Cox.

O ur Father which in heaven art,
 And mak'st us all one brotherhood,
 To call upon thee with one heart,
 Our heavenly Father and our God:
 Grant we pray not with lips alone,
 But with our hearts deep sigh and grone.

Thy blessed Name be sanctified
 Thy holy word might us inflame,
 In holy life for to abide:
 To magnifie thy holy Name
 From all errors defend and keep
 The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour,
 And henceforth everlastingly:
 Thine holy Ghost into us pour,
 With all his gifts most plenteously.
 From Satans rage and filthy band
 Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
 Like as in heaven in earth also:
 In trouble grant us patience,
 Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
 Let not flesh, blood, or any ill,
 Prevail against thy holy will.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 And all other good gifts of thine:
 Keep us from war, and from blood shed,
 Also from sickness, dearth, and pine:
 That we may live in quietness,
 Without all greedy carefulness.

Forgive us our offences all,
 Relieve our careful conscience;
 As we forgive both great and small
 Which unto us have done offence.
 Prepare us, Lord, for to serve thee
 In perfect love and unite.

O Lord, into temptation
 Lead us not; when the fiend doth rage,
 To withstand his invasion
 Give power and strength to every age.
 Arm and make strong thy feeble host
 With faith, and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord, from evil deliver us,
 The days and times are dangerous:
 From everlasting death save us,
 And in our last need comfort us.
 A blessed end to us bequeath,
 Into thy hands our souls receive.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings
 And thou hast power over all:
 Thy glory shineth in all things,
 In the wide world universal.
 Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
 That we have pray'd with one accord.

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

All my belief and confidence
 is in the Lord of might;
 The Father which all things hath made,
 the day and eke the night:
 The heavens and the firmament,
 and also many a star:

The Creed.

he earth and all that is therein,
which pass mans reason far.
and in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his Son,
equal with the Deity,
and man in flesh and bone:
conceived by the holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure:
and of his mother Mary born,
yet she a virgin pure.

because mankind to Satan was in sin in bond and thrall:
he came and offered up himself
to death, to save us all.
and suffering most grievous pain,
when Pilate being judge,
was crucified on the cross,
and thereat did not grudge.

and so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the sprite:
his body then was buried,
his is our use and rite.
his soul did after this descend
to the lower parts:
and tread unto the wicked sprites,
and joy to faithful hearts.

and in the third day of his death
he rose to life again,
and then he might be glorifi'd,
out of all grief and pain.
ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still Gods right hand his Father dear,
according to his will;

until the day of judgement come,
when he shall come again
with angels power (yet of that day
all be uncertain)
to judge all people righteously,
for he hath dearly bought:
the living and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.

in the holy Spirit of God,
his faith to satisfie,
the third Person in Trinity
I believe I stedfastly:
the holy and catholick church
his Gods word doth maintain,
the holy scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.

also I do trust to have Jesus Christ his death
and pardon of my sins,
that onely by faith:
at time all flesh shall rise again
before the Lord of might;
to see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

then shall Christ our Saviour
sheep and goats divide,
to give life everlastingly
those whom he hath try'd:
in his realm celestial glory for to rest,
and all his holy company
saints and angels blest;

which serve the Lord omnipotent
continently each hour:
whom be all dominion
praise for evermore.

A Prayer to be said before the Supper

Come holy Spirit the Comforter of us all:
Teach us to know thy word right,
that we do never fall.
O holy Ghost, visit our consciences
defend us with thy shield:
Against all sin and wickedness,
Lord, help us win the field.

Lord, keep our king and his counsel,
and give them will and might
To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sin to flight.
O Lord, that giv'st the holy word,
send preachers plentifully:
That in the same we may accord,
and therein live audie.

O holy Spirit, direct and bright
the preachers of thy word,
That thou by them mayst cut down sin
as it were with a sword.
Depart not from thy pastours pure,
but aid them at their need:
Which break to us the bread of life,
whereon our souls do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity,
Keep us from sects and errors all,
and from all witchery.
Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord, increase our faith in us,
and love us to abound;
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about us round.
In our time give thy peace, O Lord,
to nations far and nigh:
And teach them all thy holy word,
that we may sing to thee.

All Glory to the Trinity
that is of mighties most:
The living Father, and the Son,
and like the holy Ghost.
As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore.

Da pacem, Domine.

GIVE peace in these our days, O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand:
Thine enemies with own accord
Christ's Name in every land
Seek to deface,
Root out and rase
Thy true right worship indeed.
Be thou the stay,
Lord, we thee pray,
Thou help'st alone in all need.
Give us that peace that we do lack
Through misbelief and ill life:
Thy word to offer thou dost not slack,
Which we unkindly gain-skrive.
With fire and sword
Thy healthful word
Some persecute and oppress:
Some with the mouth
Confess the truth
without sincere godliness.

With peace our hearts
Do pierce our hearts
And by faith in Christ rescue:
That fear and dread,
War and bloodshed,
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from us slide:
Thy truth may bide,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord, in thee is all my trust,
O give ear unto my woful cry:
Refuse me not that am unjust,
but bowing down thy heavenly eye,
Behold how I do still lament
my sins wherein I do offend:
O Lord, for them shall I be thent,
sith thee to please I do intend?

No, no; not so thy will is bent
to deal with sinners in thine re:
But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grant'st with speed their just desire
To thee therefore still shall I cry,
to wash away my sinful crime:
Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry
but that it may help me in time.

Haste thee, O Lord, haste thee, I say,
to pour on me thy gifts of grace,
That when this life shall flie away
in heaven with thee I may have place:
Where thou dost reign eternally with God which once did down thee send,
Where angels sing continually:
to thee be praise world without end.

A Thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lords Supper

THE Lord be thanked for his gifts
and mercies evermore
That he doth shew unto his saints:
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord
as he doth right deserve:
Our hearts cannot of him so think
as he doth us preserve.

His benefits they be so great
to us that be but sin,
That at our hands for recompense
there is no hope to win.
O sinful flesh, that thou shouldst have such mercies of the Lord!
Thou dost deserve most worthily
of him to be abhorr'd,

Nought else but sin and wretchedness
doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornly against the Lord
we daily play our parts.
The sun above in firmament
that is to us a light, Doth shew it self more clear and pure
then we be in his light.

The heavens above and all therein
more holy are then we:
They serve the Lord in their estate,
each one in his degree.
They do not strive for mastery,
nor slack their office set:
But serve the Lord and do his will,
hate is to them no let.

Also the earth and all therein
of God it is in awe,

Both he and his dear Son
 The Spirit beneath do tremble all,
 And fear his wrathful check.
 But we (alas!) for whom all these were made them for to rule,
 Do not so know or love the Lord
 as doth the ox or mule.
 A law he gave for us to know,
 what was his holy will:
 He would us good, but we would not
 avoid the thing is ill,
 Not one of us that seeketh out
 the Lord of life to please:
 Nor doth the thing that might us lead
 to Christ and quiet ease.
 Thus are we all his enemies,
 we can it not deny:
 And he again of his good will
 would not that we should die.
 Therefore when remedy was none
 to bring us unto life,
 The Son of God our flesh he took
 to end our mortal strife.
 And all the law of God the Lord
 he did it full obey:
 And for our sins upon the cross
 his blood our debts did pay.
 And that we should not yet forget
 what good he to us wrought,
 A sign he left our eyes to tell
 that he our bodies bought.
 In bread and wine here visible
 unto thine eyes and taste,

As once the corn did live and grow,
 and was our own with strife,
 And threshed out with many stripes,
 out from his husk to drive;
 And as the mill with violence
 did tear it out small,
 And made it like to earthly dust,
 not sparing it at all;
 And as the oven with fire hot
 did close it up with heat,
 And all this done that I have said,
 that it should be our meat:
 So was the Lord in his ripe age
 cut down by cruel death:
 His soul he gave in torments great,
 and yielded up his breath,
 Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread
 With much reproach and troubles great
 on earth his life he led.
 And as the grapes in peasant time
 are pressed very fore,
 And plucked down when they be ripe,
 and let to grow no more;
 Because the joyce that in them is
 as comfortable drink
 We might receive, and joyful be
 when sorrows make us shrink:
 So Christ his blood out pressed was
 with nails and cke with spear:
 The joyce thereof doth save all those
 that rightly do him fear.
 And as the corns by unitie
 into one loaf are knit:

So is the Lord and his whole church,
 though he in heaven sit:
 As many grapes make but one wine,
 so should we be but one.
 In faith and love in Christ above,
 and unto Christ alone:
 Leading a life without all strife,
 in quiet rest and peace:
 From envy and from malice both
 our hearts and tongues to cease.
 Which if we do, then shall we them
 that we his chosen be:
 By faith in him to lead a life
 as always willed he.
 And that we may so do indeed,
 God send us all his grace:
 Then after death we shall be sure
 with him to have a place.

R. M.

Preserve us, Lord, by thy dear word;
 From Turk and Pope defend us Lord:
 Which both would thrust out of his
 our Lord Jesus Christ thy dear Son (throne Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might,
 That thou art Lord of lords by right:
 Thy poor afflicted flock defend,
 That we may praise thee without end.
 God holy Ghost our Comforter,
 Be our patron, help, and succour:
 Give us one mind and perfect peace,
 All gifts of grace in us increase.
 Thou living God in persons three Thy Name be praised in unitie:
 In all our need for us defend,
 That we may praise thee without end.

P R A Y E R S.

A Form of Prayer to be used in private houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning Prayer.

Almighty God and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves
 here before thy majesty, trusting in our merits or worthiness, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, and grant our requests which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who also hath commanded us to assemble our selves together in his name, with full assurance that he will not onely be amongst us, but also be our Media-tour and Advocate towards thy majesty, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities.
 Therefore we beseech thee, most merciful Father, to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold sins
 and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment, but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christs sake,
 seeing his death and passion as a just recom-
 pence for all our offences, in whom thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst be reconciled with us. And seeing that of thy mercie we have quietly passed this night,
 O heavenly Father, that we may be wholly in thy service, so that we may, and deeds may redound

to the glory of thy great name, and good example to all men, who seeing our good works
 may glorifie thee our heavenly Father.

And forasmuch as of thy meer favour and love thou hast not onely created us to thine own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom which thou preparedst for us from the beginning of the world; we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time
 live in godly conversation and integrity of life,
 knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous
 men, contentious persons, drunkards, glut-tons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray
 one for another, we do not only make request,
 O Lord, for our selves, and for them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thy heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world; who as they know by thy wonderful works that thou art God over all, so they may be instructed by thy holy Spirit to believe in thee their only Saviour and redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but

Evening

O Lord God, Father Everlasting and full
-ledge and confess that we are not worthy eyes to heaven, much less to present ourselves
thy Majesty with confidence. that thou wilt receive our prayers; and grant our requests, if we consider
our own deserving; for our consciences do accuse us and our sins do witness against us; and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which
doest not justify the sinners and wicked men,
but punishest the faults of all such as transgress thy commandments: yet, most merciful Father, since it hath pleased thee, to command us, to call on thee, in all our troubles, and adversities,
promising even then, to help us, when we feel ourselves as it were, swallowed up of death, and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and fly to thy sovereign bounty, as our only stay, and refuge; beseeching thee
not to call to remembrance our manifold sins
and wickedness, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us; neither our negligence and unthankfulness, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed, the sweet comfort of the Gospel, revealed unto us: but rather to accept the obedience and death, of thy son Jesus Christ.
